The Missing Link Sando Musu Brown, 2021-11-15 The Missing Link is an autobiography and memoir of my life here in the United States since my adoption in 1961. The Missing Link expresses how desperate I am to find reconnection with who I am and how to find out who my biological parents and family are. It illustrates my family life while living with my adoptive family bonding and matters of the heart. This book gives a visual about life and times during the sixties the time of Civil Rights and the 1968 Olympics. I lived in the town of Stratford Connecticut and attended school there and in Bridgeport Connecticut. My story also tells of my mistakes and lessons learned through my trials and errors in life.

Fruit of the Womb Tiffany D. Connelly, 2013-06-12 For most of my life the word mother had been a doubled edged sword. When I was nine years old my mother was diagnosed with schizophrenia. This monster of a disease robbed my family of their mother and my mother of her family. Many years later when I married at age twenty three I started an unexpected and deeply painful journey through infertility. I found myself in a place where few could ever begin to understand my pain and loss. As I struggled to have a family of my own I began to reflect back on the loss of my own mother to mental illness. This book is dedicated to my mother Susan. In writing this I hope to share the tragic yet beautiful story of her life and to shed some light on the devastating effects schizophrenia has on families.
