Our Hidden Conversations Michele Norris, 2024-01-16 Peabody Award winning journalist Michele Norris offers a transformative dialogue on race and identity in America unearthed through her decade long work at The Race Card Project The prompt seemed simple Race Your Thoughts Six Words Please Send The answers though have been challenging and complicated In the twelve years since award winning journalist Michele Norris first posed that question over half a million people have submitted their stories to The Race Card Project inbox The stories are shocking in their depth and candor spanning the full spectrum of race ethnicity identity and class Even at just six words the micro essays can pack quite a punch revealing fear pain triumph and sometimes humor Responses such as You're Pretty for a Black girl White privilege enjoy it earned it Lady I don't want your purse My ancestors massacred Indians near here Urban living has made me racist I'm only Asian when it's convenient Many go even further than just six words submitting backstories photos and heirlooms a collection much like a scrapbook of American candor you rarely get to see Our Hidden Conversations is a unique compilation of stories richly reported essays and photographs providing a window into America during a tumultuous era This powerful book offers an honest if sometimes uncomfortable conversation about race and identity permitting us to eavesdrop on deep seated thoughts private discussions and long submerged memories The breadth of this work came as a surprise to Norris For most of the twelve years she has collected these stories many were submitted by white respondents This unexpected panorama provides a rare 360 degree view of how Americans see themselves and one another Our Hidden Conversations reminds us that even during times of great division honesty grace and a willing ear can provide a bridge toward empathy and maybe even understanding

St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge,1916 Secret War Rigas Rigopoulos,2003 A True Story of Heroism in Nazi Occupied Greece Some of the most dramatic use of secret intelligence in the Western Theater resulted from covert operations against the Nazis in the cities of occupied Europe which were implemented to a great extent by young men and women For the most part their stories remained shrouded in secrecy Readers were carried away reading the brave feats of the partisans in the mountains deserts and jungles while the strategic role of the spies and saboteurs in the cities remained almost anonymous Rigas Rigopoulos offers a rare insight into the world of espionage and sabotage and the daily terror that characterized covert operations in Athens and Piraeus Rigopoulos was one of many young Greeks appalled by the Axis occupation but one of the few who was prepared to undertake the hazardous role of spy and saboteur

History of Alaska , Volume II Jonathan M. Nielson, Ph.D.,2018-03-01 The most significant military development to touch Alaska during the interwar years was the advent of air power an innovation that completely altered Alaska s strategic position Suddenly the world became smaller as areas once thought safely distant from potential enemies became vulnerable Nowhere was this more evident than in the Pacific whose countless islands became potential advanced air bases As air technology improved the ability of long range bombers and by the 1930s of carrier aircraft to penetrate American airspace was a development of far reaching significance While such warnings were largely limited to a handful of air power advocates their vocal advocacy constituted nothing less than an insurrection a revolution in military thinking fought against entrenched military conservatism cultural aversion to change fears of budget cuts and War Department lethargy Indeed it was the air power crusader General Billy Mitchell who aggressively fought to convince the War and Navy Departments to embrace the new doctrine of offensive air power Mitchell came to understand Alaska's strategic importance early on Consequently he saw the Aleutians as a vulnerability if left unguarded Japan could creep up and by establishing air dominance take Alaska and Canada's West Coast But he also saw Alaska as a strategic base from which American planes could reduce Tokyo to powder Prophetically in 1923 Mitchell forecast precisely the military threat and strategic arguments that would shape military thinking almost twenty years later I am thinking of Alaska In an air war if we were unprepared Japan could take it away from us first by dominating the sky and creeping up the Aleutians By the mid to late 1930s military and civilian advocates of air power and more visionary strategists were beginning to make their voices heard in Congress and elsewhere decrying Alaska's military vulnerability Between 1933 and 1944 no one was more adamant than Alaska's Delegate in Congress Anthony Joseph Tony Dimond who challenged the nation to defend itself by defending Alaska To Dimond it seemed poor strategy to fortify one Pacific base Hawaii while ignoring another Alaska Dimond's campaign was strengthened by passage of the Wilcox Bill sponsored by Representative J Mark Wilcox D Florida officially known as the National Air Defense Act This truly significant legislation authorized the location and construction of military airfields throughout the United States as a general defense preparedness measure Alaska was recognized as one of the nation's six strategic regions and two bases one at Anchorage the other at Fairbanks were recommended in part because Alaska was closer to Japan than it is to the center of the continental United States Fortunately for Alaska defense advocates General Douglas MacArthur stepped down as Chief of Staff of the Army and was replaced by Major General Malin Craig in October 1935 Craig and Brigadier General Stanley D Embick advocated a substantial reconfiguration of Plan Orange arguing that the Philippines presented an invitation to attack and should be neutralized in favor of defending the Alaska Hawaii Panama Triangle Both the Army and Navy were charged with defending Alaska as far west as Dutch Harbor and the Army pledged to mobilize 6 600 troops in Alaska within a month of attack by Japan In contemplating the defense of Alaska the Army General Staff formulated five priority objectives first increase the Alaska garrison second establish a major base for Army operations near Anchorage third develop a network of air bases within Alaska fourth garrison these bases with combat troops and fifth protect the naval installations at Sitka Kodiak and Dutch Harbor Alaska was about to go to war
