Punishment Short Of Death A History Of The Penal Settlement At Norfolk Island:

Punishment Short of Death Margaret Hazzard,1984 An Uneasy Relationship Maev O'Collins,2010-11-01 The situation of Norfolk Island as a territory of the Commonwealth of Australia is one of the historical anomalies in governance which has persisted since 1914 It reflects the direct historical linkages between the British Crown and those Norfolk Islanders who were descendants of Pitcairn Islanders of Mutiny on the Bounty fame Yet once Federation was in the wind the British Government against the expressed wishes of the Norfolk Island community sought to divest itself of all responsibility for Norfolk Island There is a curiously Yes Minister quality about the negotiations which lead to the final take over by Australia and the appointment of the first Commonwealth Administrator of Norfolk Island The direct involvement of Atlee Hunt then Secretary of the Department of External Affairs eventually ensured the appointment of Michael Vincent Murphy In order to achieve this end Hunt had to fend off other applicants who were busy ingratiating themselves with the Minister for External Affairs Patrick McMahon Glynn and the then Prime Minister Joseph Cook This is essentially a study of the relationships between governors politicians public servants and community leaders during the years which followed the take over of Norfolk Island and of the struggle of one Norfolk Islander Charles Chase Ray Nobbs against Australian administrative authority PUNISHMENT SHORT OF DEATH Margaret Hazzard,1984 The Fatal Shore Robert Hughes,1988-02-12 NATIONAL BESTSELLER This incredible true history of the colonization of Australia explores how the convict transportation system created the country we know today One of the greatest non fiction books I ve ever read Hughes brings us an entire world Los Angeles Times Digging deep into the dark history of England s infamous efforts to move 160 000 men and women thousands of miles to the other side of the world in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Hughes has crafted a groundbreaking definitive account of the settling of Australia Tracing the European presence in Australia from early explorations through the rise and fall of the penal colonies and featuring 16 pages of illustrations and 3 maps The Fatal Shore brings to life the history of the country we thought we knew A Concise History of Australia Stuart Macintyre,2009-06-29 Australia is the last continent to be settled by Europeans but it also sustains a people and a culture tens of thousands years old For much of the past 200 years the newcomers have sought to replace the old with the new This book tells how they imposed themselves on the land and brought technology institutions and ideas to make it their own It relates the advance from penal colony to a prosperous free nation and illustrates how as a nation created by waves of newcomers the search for binding traditions was long frustrated by the feeling of rootlessness until it came to terms with its origins The third edition of this acclaimed book recounts the key factors social economic and political that have shaped modern day Australia It covers the rise and fall of the Howard government the 2007 election and the apology to the stolen generation More than ever before Australians draw on the past to understand their future The Colonial Earth Tim Bonyhady,2003-04-01 Using the work of great Australian painters and poets as an entry point this cultural study counters the popular myth that early colonial settlers were environmentally irresponsible and offers both aesthetic and historical evidence that suggests nature always figured prominently in the Australian national consciousness Preserving endangered species protecting forests maintaining public land rights and staving off climate change were at issue in the first environmental law of Australia enacted in 1788 Parliamentary debates personal observations and artistic renderings explore the texture and dimensions of early Australian environmentalism

A Compulsion to Kill Robert Cox, 2014-08-21 The latest work from acclaimed historical author Robert Cox A Compulsion to Kill is a dramatic chronological account of 19th century Tasmanian serial murderers Never before revealed in such depth the story is the culmination of extensive research and adept craftsmanship as it probes the essence of both the crimes and the killers themselves Beginning in 1806 with Australia's first serial killers John Brown and Richard Lemon A Compulsion to Kill recounts the stories of Alexander Pearce the cannibal convict Thomas Jeffrey a sadist sexual predator cannibal and baby killer known as the monster Charles Routley who burnt one of his victims alive cannibal convicts Broughton and McAvoy Rocky Whelan who in twenty four days slew five men in cold blood and John Haley who killed three people in fits of rage The final chapter investigates the still unsolved Parkmount murders three killings for which the two probable culprits twice faced court only to be discharged due to faulty police investigation and neglected evidence Most of these stories have never been told before and none has previously been related with such detail and verifiable accuracy A determined storyteller Cox delivers a supremely dramatic page turner in the true crime genre The book includes extensive references and an index

Framing the Penal Colony Sophie Fuggle, Charles Forsdick, Katharina Massing, 2023-02-20 This book examines the representation of penal colonies both historically and in contemporary culture across an array of media Exploring a range of geographies and historical instances of the penal colony it seeks to identify how the penal colony as a widespread phenomenon is as much imagined and creatively instrumentalized as it pertains to real sites and populations It concentrates on the range of media produced in and around penal colonies both during their operation and following their closures This approach emphasizes the role of cross disciplinary methods and approaches to examining the history and legacy of convict transportation prison islands and other sites of exile It develops a range of methodological tools for engaging with cultures and representations of incarceration detention and transportation The chapters draw on media discourse analysis critical cartography museum and heritage studies ethnography architectural history visual culture including film and comics studies and gaming studies It aims to disrupt the idea of adopting linear histories or isolated geographies in order to understand the impact and legacy of penal colonies The overall claim made by the collection is that understanding the cultural production associated with this global phenomenon is a necessary part of a wider examination of carceral imaginaries or penal spectatorship Brown 2009 past present and future It brings together historiography criminology media and cultural studies

The Europeans in Australia

Alan Atkinson, 2016-07-01 It is the duty of historians to be wherever they can accurately precise humane imaginative using moral imagination above all and even handed Alan Atkinson The second of three volumes of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia gives an account of early settlement by Britain It tells of the political and intellectual origins of this extraordinary undertaking that began during the 1780s a decade of extraordinary creativity and the climax of the European Enlightenment Volume Two Democracy takes the story from around 1815 to the early 1870s By exploring the nineteenth century communications revolution Atkinson casts new light on the way Australia first found its place in a global world This volume is more than a story of geography and politics It describes the way people thought and felt Throughout the trilogy Atkinson traces subtle and sudden shifts of common imagination by analysing the lives of both powerful and ordinary Australians He sets out the ideas and the imagery that moved and marked the people This book like all his work is grounded in thorough and rigorous scholarship yet imbued with compassion and insight Written from the inside it is as he says history caught up with the flesh and memory it describes The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark's A History of Australia
