Punjats Ruby:

The Punjat's Ruby Marian J. A. Jackson, 2001-08 In 1900 a female was the property of either a father or husband and for a girl of her station to become anything but a wealthy man's wife was unthinkable. But Miss Abigail Patience Danforth was determined to usher in the twentieth century by becoming the world's first female consulting detective, even after Dr. Arthur Conan Doyle himself tries to dissuade her and Mark Twain refuses to encourage her. Frederick The Earl of Hunterswell is eager to ask Miss Danforth's father for her hand, but then the fabulous Punjat's ruby, intended as a gift for the Prince of Wales, disappears from Hunterswell House and Miss Danforth is pitched headlong into her first case. With Lord Frederick in tow, Miss Danforth returns to her father's Gramercy Park mansion in New York where she enlists the help of the famous actor Will Gillette, who was starring in Sherlock Holmes on Broadway, to help her pursue her elusive quarry, risking her life to retrieve The Punjat's Ruby.

The Arabian Pearl Marian J. A. Jackson, 2001-08 Fresh from her heady success at retrieving the Punjat's ruby for the Prince of Wales, Miss Abigail Patience Danforth and her entourage are speeding toward San Francisco in a private railroad car when their journey is interrupted by train robbers. They murder her new friend and steal her beloved horse, Crosspatches, along with Marshal Bill Tilghman's foundation sire, an Arabian priceless as a monarch's pearl. Far from the familiar boulevards of London and New York where she had schooled herself in the infant science of detection, Miss Danforth disdains the famous lawman's old-fashioned slow methods of tracking fugitives across the vast wilderness that was then the Oklahoma Territory and creates her own, her only clue: the killer's love of chocolate.

The Cat's Eye Marian J. A. Jackson, 2001-08 Encouraged by Miss Danforth's decision to become the world's first female consulting detective, her chaperone Maude Cunningham begs Abigail to find the killer who gunned down her beloved fiancé on the streets of San Francisco's Chinatown. Eager to help her friend and to tackle a new and challenging case, Abigail recalls the advice of her mentor, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, and begins the process of logical detection, unaware that sinister forces desperate to stop her are already watching her and anticipating her every move. Disguised as a gentleman with the young writer Jack London as her guide, Miss Danforth leaves the safety of her wealthy hostess's Nob Hill mansion to interview the sleazy denizens of the Barbary Coast, determined to solve the crime by unveiling the secrets hidden in The Cat's Eye.

Diamond Head Marian J. A. Jackson, 2001-08-26 Accompanied as always by her companion and confidante Maude Cunningham and her major domo Kinkade, Miss Abigail Patience Danforth was putting an end to what she saw as yet another attempt by Maude to act as matchmaker as they sat on their balcony at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Oahu. But for once Maude was not thinking of romance. She suspected that someone was poisoning the rightful heir to a sugar fortune, Matthew Tarkington, in a most diabolical way by making it appear that he had the symptoms of the beginning of leprosy, the mere suspicion of which would be cause enough to have him banished to the hell on earth that was the leper colony on Molokai. But just as Miss Danforth finally agrees to look into the matter, the household is struck by disaster. The body of Princess Lilliana, a cousin of the deposed

Hawaiian royalty is discovered and Kinkade normally the most sedate and sensible of men confesses to the murder and it is against his will that Miss Danforth must prove his innocence In spite of the danger to herself Miss Danforth not only uncovers the real murderer of the princess she exposes the plot to banish Matthew In doing so many of the secrets of Hawaii s elite are exposed to an unmerciful tropical sun Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett,2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 Sleuths in Skirts Frances A.
