Puppets That Are Different:

Puppets that are Different Audrey Vincente Dean, 1973-01 Aspects of Puppet Theatre Henryk Jurkowski, Penny Francis, 2014-01-07 Henryk Jurkowski's seminal 1988 text Aspects of Puppet Theatre was groundbreaking in its analysis of puppetry as a performing art. This new edition of a classic brings the original text back to life including four additional essays and a new introduction edited and translated by leading puppetry scholar Penny Francis.

Puppets and Cities Jennifer Goodlander, 2018-12-13 Nations in Southeast Asia have gone through a period of rapid change within the last century as they have grappled with independence, modernization and changing political landscapes. Governments and citizens strive to balance progress with the need to articulate identities that resonate with the pre-colonial past and look towards the future. Puppets and Cities: Articulating Identities in Southeast Asia addresses how puppetry complements and combines with urban spaces to articulate present and future cultural and national identities. Puppetry in Southeast Asia is one of the oldest and most dynamic genres of performance. Bangkok, Jakarta, Phnom Penh and other dynamic cities are expanding and rapidly changing. Performance brings people together, offers opportunities for economic growth and bridges public and private spheres. Whether it is a traditional shadow performance borrowing from Star Wars or giant puppets parading down the street, this book examines puppets as objects and in performance to make culture come alive. Based on several years of field research, watching performances, working with artists and interviewing key stakeholders in Southeast Asian cultural production, the book offers a series of rich case studies of puppet performance from various locations including theatre in suburban Bangkok, puppets in museums in Jakarta, Indonesia, puppet companies from Laos, PDR, the National Puppet Theatre of Vietnam and the Giant Puppet Project in Siem Reap, Cambodia. New global puppetry networks through social media and how puppeteers came together from around the region to create a performance celebrating ASEAN identity.

Spaces of Puppets in Popular Culture Janet Banfield, 2022-06-01 This first book-length exploration of geographical engagement with puppets examines constructions of puppets in contemporary popular British culture and considers the various ways in which puppets and humans, not just puppeteers, are unified in diverse cultural media. Organised around themes of metaphorical, performative and transformational puppets, the work draws out how puppets are used in diverse cultural media: fiction, music, television, film and theatre, how they are constructed through those uses and to what effect. Both puppets as generalised forms, bodily, relational or ideational, and specific puppet characters, Mr Punch, Pinocchio, are explored. Building upon existing associations between puppets and the grotesque, the volume extends understandings of the puppet by elaborating borderscapes through which puppets are constructed and an alternative perspective on the uncanniness of puppets. Geographically, it unearths distinct puppet spatialities identifies the socially critical potential of puppets rescales geo bio politics at the interpersonal level and highlights the potential of puppets within posthuman debates about the status of the human This work will be of interest to anyone fascinated by puppets as well as those in fields such as geography anthropology cultural and media studies and those interested in the grotesque posthumanism and or non representational scholarship

Every boy's book: a complete encyclopædia of sports and amusements, ed. by E. Routledge Every boy,1889 The Bookman ,1915 Speaking in Other Voices Joan Gross,2001-01-01 Linking actual instances of language use with structures of social power in francophone Belgium Gross outlines the history and contemporary configuration of rod puppetry in Li ge The analysis of this working class performance art moves between what occurs on and off stage As puppeteers speak in other voices sometimes in Walloon and sometimes in French they create a sociolinguistic model based on 19th century renditions of medieval texts the voices of past puppeteers and the language that surrounds them The high level of linguistic reflexivity created by the regional language movement has led to frequent metalinguistic and metapragmatic commentaries within the puppet shows This complex speech genre embedded in social context shows the influence of identity struggles from local class oppositions to imperial designs abroad Keeping a tight focus on language Speaking in Other Voices examines the process of entextualization and recontextualization as stories of war and religion are transmitted to succeeding generations
