Puppy Love And Thirteen Short Stories:

Frankie Sionil José Edwin Thumboo, 2005 Frankie Sionil Jos of the Philippines is among Asia's leading fictionist. In a career spanning more than half a century that included editing Solidarity which promotes writing in and about Southeast Asia, he has produced a remarkable body of fiction. Apart from winning various prizes, he was a Ramon Magsaysay awardee in 1980 and a National Artist for Literature in 2001. This tribute in commemoration of Jos's 80th birthday brings together reminiscences, poems, a substantial number of essays, all published for the first time. The comprehensive bibliography is indispensable to all who wish to study his work. By leading scholars of Filipino literature, the essays examine such themes as nation, history, and society in Jos's works and his use of English, of myth, through an examination of single or groups of texts of which the quintet that form the Rosales Saga is the most notable. They provide a challenging explication and assessment that, together with the other contributions, make the volume an authoritative, stimulating introduction to Jos and to Filipino and Asian literature in English. It should be in all major libraries. They Called It Puppy Love R.A. Rios, 2017-05-22 Revision 2019. This story is about true everlasting love. While falling in love is a confusing emotion, no matter what your age, from a teen to adult, we all experience the struggles of our emotions. Toby and Mary experience romantic affections for one another even though they knew they were too young to know any better. This set their life course down a one-way street out of control. When we are young, these emotional feelings sometimes stir within us, the thoughts of true love, but they seldom last, therefore the term puppy love. This story is about Toby and Mary and the exceptional emotional experience that they go through in their search for true love. Come along on this emotional roller coaster ride into true love that brings them real joy as well as lots of emotional pain and heart break. Their story and search for true love spans twelve years, but over that time the suffering that this one man must go through is more than any person should ever have to bear.
