two parts The journey of love in couples Jessica Riberi, Inge Ludvigsen, 2021-01-20 A couple's relationship is not just about two people. Numerous unconscious psychological scripts from the collective sphere and mandates inherited from family history affect our way of living love, one of the most significant human experiences. The psychotherapists and Master Trainer in NLP, Jessica Riberi and Inge Ludvigsen, combine their professional and teaching experience in Chile and Denmark and propose a system to align six energy fields that promote and strengthen the love bond. Jessica Riberi and Inge Ludvigsen have written a delightful and very helpful guide to how archetypal forms that are the patterns of the universal energies of human being can support and transform intimate relationships. They are especially good in describing how to develop more mature and generative levels of each universal energy. I highly recommend it to both people helpers as well as those seeking deeper intimacy connections. Stephen Gilligan, psychologist, author of The Courage to Love and The Hero's Journey with Robert Dilts: What could be more important and timely than having pathways to bring more quality into our relationships? We are relational beings seeking the connections for outcomes of life, partners, families, work spaces, and communities. Connection is there but managing these connections is quite a different order. This is where archetypes guide us by reflecting back an ideal. Not that we ever really get to the ideal but they remind us to bring awareness to the learning and the nurturing of the relationships that bring the joy to our lives. Thank you so much for this book The Journey of love in couples as it also can bring us some hope for our inner and outer peace. Judith DeLozier, anthropologist, coauthor of Turtle all the way down with John Grinder and Encyclopedia of Systemic NLP with Robert Dilts The Magician's Own Book, Or, The Whole Art of Conjuring George Arnold, Frank Cahill, Wiljalba Frikell, Henry Llewellyn Williams, 1857 The Magician's Own Book, Or The Whole Art of Conjuring, 1857 Stellas Daemonum David Crowhurst, 2021 An exploration of the 93 spirits or star demons as revealed in the medieval grimoires and classical esoteric texts and their correspondences in magic and astrology. Stellas Daemonum offers an in-depth analysis of the spirits that appear in several late medieval and early modern grimoires. The book unravels these texts' mythical, etymological, magical, and religious meanings and draws out their astrological correspondences. The author shows how the spirit entities featured in these Goetic grimoires can be best understood by studying the celestial nature apparent in the ancient concept of the daimon and through an extensive study of 93 of the spirits featured in medieval and renaissance texts. The book also explores how traditional Judeo-Christian religion ultimately demonised such expressions due to their polytheistic roots and made punishable by death any attempts to reconnect with them. The nature of this work is strongly influenced by the author's own magical practices but its presentation does not resort to subjective or personal experiences, having a style that is more formal and research-based.
