Faith, Hope, and Love in the Kingdom of God Robert Hernan Cubillos, 2017-04-27 We live in a world full of challenges The three graces can almost be seen as motors for Christian life in today's world but the words faith hope and love have so many everyday uses that their technical theological meanings are for many difficult to appreciate Modern life also leaves many yearning for authenticity and meaning Many religions have answered that need by calling to mind the image of a path Always profound progressions religious paths tend to be motivated either by practices the act of walking the path or focal points Christianity has a focal point an object and it sees the three graces as distinctively content filled The heart of this book is about helping people find the Christian path and their intellectual emotional and spiritual balance an equilibrium that is sustained by a strong personal faith an enduring hope for the future and genuine love that will withstand the worst of times It contributes to the category of Christian literature that provides a pattern for Christian living without surrendering the intellect to the more popular side of this genre

Chiara Lubich, 2006 The history of spirituality has never seen a way to God like this one Till now all forms of spiritual growth have focused on the individual's discovery of the Beauty of Beauties the God who fascinates the human heart And they have striven to find ways in which individuals can be transformed ways in which they can enter into the ultimate experience In essence none of this disappears But the spirituality that Chiara Lubich and her companions have discovered is a new way in which people go to God not primarily as individuals but together It is a spirituality of communion as described by John Paul II No longer is the spiritual life about withdrawing from other people nor just about serving them It is about living with them in unity growing together in God What do I wish for this book That it may become nourishment for the lives of many and that it may contribute to making the Church beautiful so that for the salvation of the world and for the glory of God the Church may live among men and women as a sign of and a pointer towards happiness Cardinal Miloslav Vlk Archbishop of Prague
