Martha C. Nussbaum

Loved And Unloved The Girl Child In The Family:

Loved and Unloved Jasodhara Bagchi, Jaba Guha, 1997 Why does this book speak of the girl child and not of the child whether boy or girl The girl child is the endangered sex in our society She remains entrapped in a complex social process that naturalises her deprivation Her place is within the family which traditionally has been viewed as a specially nurturing and protecting institution for her Critically examining this view the authors raise vital questions on gender based discrimination within the family Thirteen case studies poignantly reveal the way discrimination occurs The authors have used the data for West Bengal compiled by the School of Women s Studies Jadavpur University as part of the national project on the girl child that was sponsored by the Indian government and carried out in twenty two women s studies centres The book surveys 600 sample households covering girls aged 7 18 years in selected rural and urban areas It offers detailed analysis of the girl child s mother and her perceptions of her children her daughters in particular

Endangered Daughters

Elizabeth Croll, 2002-01-04 This unique and groundbreaking book seeks to re focus gender debate onto the issue of daughter discrimination a phenomenon still hidden and unacknowledged across the world It asks the controversial question of why millions of girls do not appear to be surviving to adulthood in contemporary Asia In the first major study available of this emotive and sensitive issue Elisabeth Croll investigates the extent of discrimination against female children in Asia and shifts the focus of attention firmly from son preference to daughter discrimination This book brings together demographic data and anthropological field studies to reveal the multiple ways in which girls are disadvantaged from excessive child mortality to the withholding of health care and education on the basis of gender Focusing especially on China and India the book reveals the surprising coincidence of increasing daughter discrimination with rising economic development declining fertility and the generally improved status of women in East and South Asia Essential reading for all those interested in gender in contemporary society

Family, School and Nation

Nivedita Sen, 2015-07-03 This seminal work examines the concurrence of childhood rebellion and conformity in Bengali literary texts including adult texts a pertinent yet unexplored area making it a first of its kind It is a study of the voice of child protagonists across children s and adult literature in Bengali vis vis the institutions of family the education system and the nationalist movement in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Modernist Transitions Subhadeep Ray, Goutam Karmakar, 2023-12-30 This volume is a critical reader focusing on the continuities and discontinuities confirmations and confrontations crossovers and collisions appropriations adaptations and assimilations in the cultural transitions between British and Bangla vernacular modernist fiction within the context of the imperial modernity of the first half of the 20th century The volume consisting of critical essays aspires to illuminate from multiple but intersecting perspectives those thematic and structural areas where these two kinds of literary modernism each aesthetically diverse historically segmented by onslaughts of wars and other outbreaks of suffering and violence and ideologically convoluted but conditioned in many ways by common socio historical catastrophes and promises interact with each other to constitute an aesthetics of motion and dissonance Essays cut across literary criticism to employ interdisciplinary approaches as they blur the boundaries between histories biographies and fictional narratives between individual ethics in and outside the fictional world between imagined and living communities between real and generic politics between the home and the world and between the corporeal and the cultural These essays interrogate the mastery in literary techniques narrative motives and dualities major and minor genres de formations of canons in respect of the worldliness formed by the textual incorporation of the intricate imperial relationships between the United Kingdom and Bangla

Child Marriage in an International Frame Mary E. John, 2021-04-12 Child marriage has been given a pre eminent place in agendas addressing harmful practices as defined by the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals India leads the world in the number of women who marry below the age of 18 and is therefore of unique interest to international and national forums Refusing simplistic labels like harmful practice this book explores the complex history of child marriage as a social and feminist issue in India across different domains It critically reviews a wide range of historical demographic and legal scholarship on the subject Major concepts relevant to child marriage such as childhood adolescence the girl and marriage are analysed in a comparative framework that uncovers the unnoticed presence of the practice in the USA and China The volume questions existing approaches analyses the latest data sources and develops a new concept of compulsory marriage A definitive study of child marriage in India in a changing global context this book will interest scholars and students in the fields of women s gender and sexuality studies childhood studies development studies and the social sciences It will also be of great appeal to all those working with civil society organisations NGOs states and international agencies in India and globally

Fathers in the Motherland Swapna M Banerjee, 2022-08-03 This monograph breaks new ground by weaving stories of fathers and children into the history of gender family and nation in colonial India Focusing on the reformist Bengali Hindu and Brahmo communities the author contends that fatherhood assumed new meaning and significance in late nineteenth and early twentieth century India During this time of social and political change fathers extended their roles beyond breadwinning to take an active part in rearing their children Utilizing pedagogic literature articles in scientific journals autobiographies correspondence and published essays Fathers in a Motherland documents the different ways the authority and power of the father was invoked and constituted both metaphorically and in everyday experiences Exploring specific moments when educated men as biological fathers literary activists and educators assumed guardianship and became crucial agents of change Banerjee interrogates the connections between fatherhood and masculinity The last chapter of the book moves beyond Bengal and draws on the lives of Mohandas K Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru to provide a broader salience to its argument Reclaiming two missing links in Indian history fathers and children the book argues that biological and imaginary fathers assumed the moral guardianship of an incipient nation and rested their hopes and dreams on the future generation

The Politics of Rights Andrea Cornwall, Maxine Molyneux, 2013-09-13 Since the late 1990s development institutions have increasingly used the language of rights in their policy and practice This special issue on feminist perspectives on politics of rights explores the strategies tensions and challenges associated with rights work in a variety of settings Articles on the Middle East Africa Latin America East and South Asia explore the dilemmas that arise for feminist praxis in these diverse locations and address the question of what rights can contribute to struggles for gender justice Exploring the intersection of formal rights whether international human rights conventions constitutional rights or national legislation with the everyday realities of women in settings characterized by entrenched gender inequalities and poverty plural legal systems and cultural norms that can constitute formidable obstacles to realizing rights The contributors suggest that these sites of struggle can create new possibilities and meanings and a politics of rights animated by demands for social and gender justice
