Loves Burning Flame:

Love's Burning Flame Iris Bancroft,1980-01-01 Love Is Burning Flame Ma PoDouFu,2020-04-05 Do you really forget your first love If one day you meet someone who looks exactly like him Was he really him Was it possible Was this the tolerance of fate or was this another joke If this is the end why can t I forget you The Burning Flame of Love Jean Maalouf,2017-08-17 Nothing is neither fuller nor better in heaven and earth Every authentic love story is in its essence a journey toward God and every time we truly love we unveil the face of God because God is love 1 John 4 16 No wonder Thomas Kempis affirmed that nothing is sweeter than love nothing stronger nothing higher nothing wider nothing more pleasant nothing fuller nor better in heaven and earth because love is born of God and cannot rest but in God above all things But if it is so why in the world do we find ourselves very often dissatisfied with our love life and why do we have so many dysfunctional relationships with our families neighbors and others Why do we seem to love to hate each other and make enemies rather than friends not only with individuals and groups but also with other nations as well What is missing from our earthly love What has happened to love To these questions and to many more Dr Maalouf whose focus is one of gentle revolution in human development as leading critics said when describing his prolific works Is suggesting here a different way of seeing the reality of love Although it is based on psychological sociological philosophical and theological principles this adopted way conveys the message through a poetic contemplative and mystical method in the style of Meister Eckhart and St John of the Cross This is not intended to be a comprehensive study on love but a fresh awakening to the existential deeper and richer level of consciousness of the living love for the love of one another John 13 34 is not just a commodity for social arrangement but the evidence of our divine origin and destiny and the critical condition for our very survival Thus a book like this should be read meditatively the way one listens to a great symphony or perceives a masterpiece in an art museum and comprehensively for it is not just the total sum of its paragraphs as a symphony and a painting are not the total sum of their different notes and colors Then wonder of wonders one will realize that there is nothing more mysterious more magical more life changing than love It is indeed the philosophers stone that converts whatever it touches into a golden reality Then everything will start to make sense for nothing not even all the money in the world can buy the strength and the happiness of a true loving heart The Delights of Wisdom Concerning Conjugal Love: After Which Follow the Pleasures of

Wounds of Love Frank Graziano, 2004-01-15 The Peruvian mystic St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586-1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and remains the object of widespread devotion today In this engrossing new study Frank Graziano uses the example of St Rose to explore the meaning of female mysticism and the way in which saints are products of their cultures Virginity austerity eucharistic devotion incessant mortification and mystical marriage to Christ characterized the devotional regimen that structured St Rose's entire life Many of her mystical practices echo the symptoms of such modern psychological disorders as masochism depression hysteria and anorexia nervosa Graziano offers a sophisticated argument not only for the origins and meaning of these behaviors in Rose's case but also for the reason her culture venerated them as signs of sanctity In the process he explores a wide range of themes from the idea of suffering as an expression of love to the assimilation of childhood trauma through religious repetition Graziano also offers a penetrating analysis of the politics of Rose's canonization He finds that her mystical union with God bypassing the institutional channels of sacrament and priestly mediation was inherently subversive to the bureaucratized Church Canonization was a cooptation by which Rose's competing claim to Christ was integrated into the Catholic canon The book concludes with a fascinating exploration of mystical eroticism with its intense experiences of vision and ecstasy The eroticized suffering of many mystics is shown to be very human in origin the mystic's wounded love is projected onto a God conceived to accommodate it Wounds of Love is based on a decade of research in archives rare books and an extraordinary range of secondary sources Introducing an innovative method that integrates history cultural studies psychoanalysis and clinical psychology this compelling work offers a bold new interpretation of female mysticism
