The Love Touch Frank L. Clark,2011-12-14 The 5000 year old History of touch was well understood by wise men kings and queens royal courts astrologist professors and philosophers These historical figures learned and understood how daily touch was important to their well being We have come a long way since then and know now that children can die with touch Touch supplies the basic needs in our wonderfully orchestrated child hood development Daily touch is as important as breathing Look inside and learn how important daily touch is to your stressful lives Food Is Love Katherine J.

Parkin,2011-06-03 Modern advertising has changed dramatically since the early twentieth century but when it comes to food Katherine Parkin writes the message has remained consistent Advertisers have historically promoted food in distinctly gendered terms returning repeatedly to themes that associated shopping and cooking with women Foremost among them was that regardless of the actual work involved women should serve food to demonstrate love for their families In identifying shopping and cooking as an expression of love ads helped to both establish and reinforce the belief that kitchen work was women s work even as women s participation in the labor force dramatically increased Alternately flattering her skills as a homemaker and preying on her insecurities advertisers suggested that using their products would give a woman irresistible sexual allure a happy marriage and healthy children Ads also promised that by buying and making the right foods a woman could help her family achieve social status maintain its racial or ethnic identity and assimilate into the American mainstream Advertisers clung tenaciously to this paradigm throughout great upheavals in the patterns of American work diet and gender roles To discover why Food Is Love draws on thousands of ads that appeared in the most popular magazines of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries including the Ladies Home Journal Good Housekeeping Ebony and the Saturday Evening Post The book also cites the records of one of the nation s preeminent advertising firms as well as the motivational research advertisers utilized to reach their customers A Memoir of Love Jessiqua Wittman,2012-06-04 A post apocalyptic world an unlikely band of Revolutionaries this is the memoir of their struggles and triumphs A woman describes a refugee colony s dramatic rise to power The governmental shift was bound to happen the only question in the matter is who will be the leader of this new nation Written in first person this memoir provides an inside look at those whose lives are destined to become swallowed up and defined by political intrigue Great men and women go through all the same trials and temptations ordinary people go through the stakes are just much higher because everybody is watching them Everybody's Magazine ,1904

Boundaries of Touch Jean Halley, 2007-06-25 A history of the shifting and conflicting ideas about when where and how we should touch our children Discussing issues of parent child contact ranging from breastfeeding to sexual abuse Jean O Malley Halley traces the evolution of mainstream ideas about touching between adults and children over the course of the twentieth century in the United States Debates over when a child should be weaned and whether to allow a child to sleep in the parent s bed reveal deep differences in conceptions of appropriate adult child contact Boundaries of Touch shows how arguments about adult child touch have been politicized simplified and bifurcated into naturalist and behaviorist viewpoints thereby sharpening certain binary constructions such as mind body and male female Halley discusses the gendering of ideas about touch that were advanced by influential social scientists and parenting experts including Benjamin Spock Alfred C Kinsey and Luther Emmett Holt She also explores how touch ideology fared within and against the post World War II feminist movements especially with respect to issues of breastfeeding and sleeping with a child versus using a crib In addition to contemporary periodicals and self help books on child rearing Halley uses information gathered from interviews she conducted with mothers ranging in age from twenty eight to seventy three Throughout she reveals how the parent child relationship far from being a private or benign subject continues as a highly contested politicized affair of keen public interest      A Networked Self and Love Zizi Papacharissi, 2018-06-12 We fall in love every day with others with ideas with ourselves Stories of love excite us and baffle us This volume is about love and the networked self It focuses on how love forms grows or dissolves Chapters address how relationships of love develop are sustained or broken up through technologies of expression and connection Authors explore how technologies reproduce reorganize or reimagine our dominant rituals of love Contributors also address what our experiences with love teach us about ourselves others and the art of living Every love story has a beginning and an end Technology does not give love the kiss of eternity but it can afford love new meaning      *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
