Fiction 1990-2012 Ciara Ní Bhroin, 2021-05-22 In the context of changing constructs of home and of childhood since the mid twentieth century this book examines discourses of home and homeland in Irish children s fiction from 1990 to 2012 a time of dramatic change in Ireland spanning the rise and fall of the Celtic Tiger and of unprecedented growth in Irish children s literature Close readings of selected texts by five award winning authors are linked to social intellectual and political changes in the period covered and draw on postcolonial feminist cultural and children s literature theory highlighting the political and ideological dimensions of home and the value of children s literature as a lens through which to view culture and society as well as an imaginative space where young people can engage with complex ideas relevant to their lives and the world in which they live Examining the works of O R Melling Kate Thompson Eoin Colfer Siobh n Parkinson and Siobhan Dowd Ciara N Bhroin argues that Irish children s literature changed at this time from being a vehicle that largely promoted hegemonic ideologies of home in post independence Ireland to a site of resistance to complacent notions of home in Celtic Tiger Ireland In Love with Movies Daniel Talbot, 2022-04-13 All that I do is go out and look at films and choose the ones I want to play films that stimulate and give some insight into our lives I hope that people will come but if they don t that s okay too Daniel Talbot changed the way the Upper West Side and art house audiences around the world went to the movies In Love with Movies is his memoir of a rich life as the impresario of the legendary Manhattan theaters he owned and operated and as a highly influential film distributor Talbot and his wife Toby opened the New Yorker Theater in 1960 cultivating a loyal audience of film buffs and cinephiles He went on to run several theaters including Lincoln Plaza Cinemas as well as the distribution company New Yorker Films shaping the sensibilities of generations of moviegoers The Talbots introduced American audiences to cutting edge foreign and independent filmmaking including the French New Wave and New German Cinema In this lively personal history of a bygone age of film exhibition Talbot relates how he discovered and selected films including future classics such as Before the Revolution Shoah My Dinner with Andre and The Marriage of Maria Braun He reminisces about leading world directors such as Semb ne Godard Fassbinder Wenders Varda and Kiarostami as well as industry colleagues with whom he made deals on a slip of paper or a handshake In Love with Movies is an intimate portrait of a tastemaker who was willing to take risks It not only lays out the nuts and bolts of running a theater but also tells the story of a young cinephile who turned his passion into a vibrant cultural community Catalog of Copyright Entries. unsuspected This new landscape should alter the familiar perspectives on Irish literature of the period first of all by adding genre fiction science fiction detective novels ghost stories New Woman fiction and Great War novels to the Irish syllabus secondly by demonstrating the immense contribution of women writers to popular and mainstream Irish fiction Among the popular and prolific female writers discussed are Mrs J H Riddell B M Croker M E Francis Sarah Grand Katharine Tynan Ella MacMahon Katherine Cecil Thurston W M Letts and Hannah Lynch Indeed a critical inference of the survey is that if there is a discernible tradition of the Irish novel it is largely a female tradition A substantial postscript surveys novels by Irish women between 1922 and 1940 and relates them to the work of their female antecedents This ground breaking survey should also alter the familiar perspectives on the Ireland of 1890 1922 Many of the popular works were problem novels and hence throw light on contemporary thinking and debate on the Irish Question After the Irish Literary Revival and creation of the Free State much popular and mainstream fiction became a lost archive neglected evidence indeed of a lost Ireland
