a neutral nation from 1914 to early 1917 Americans were prohibited from serving in a foreign army but many brave young souls soon made their way into European battle zones It was partly from the ranks of the French Foreign Legion and with the sponsorship of an expat American surgeon and a Vanderbilt that the Lafayette Escadrille was formed in 1916 as the first and only all American squadron in the French Air Service Flying rudimentary planes against one in three odds of being killed these fearless young men gathered reconnaissance and shot down enemy aircraft participated in the Battle of Verdun and faced off with the Red Baron dueling across the war torn skies like modern knights on horseback First to Fly shows us that there was something noble and honorable about the Escadrille men who did not turn against their own country but put their lives up to fight for a cause not because they had to but because it was the right thing to do The Wall Street Journal Beau Brummell, Lovers' lane, Nathan Hale Clyde Fitch, 1915
