

Law School Admissions Test (LSAT) Sections

Analytical Reasoning

The LSAT comprises at least one scored section of Analytical Reasoning (AR) also known as Logic Games (LG). In this section, you will have to read passages that comprise approximately 100 words. The passages will describe specific scenarios which you should go through carefully. After reading the passage/scenario, you will be asked to answer some 5 to 7 questions regarding the scenario. In total, in the Analytical Reasoning section, you will have to read four different passages and then answer the subsequent questions.

Logical Reasoning

The LSAT always has two scored Logical Reasoning (LR) sections. The LR sections require students to read a few short and argumentative passages, anywhere from 20-100 words and answer one question per passage. In total, one Logical Reasoning section has approximately 25 questions, which means around 50 questions in total for two LR sections. Test takers do not need any specialized background knowledge to answer these questions, and they cover a wide range of topics.

Reading Comprehension

The LSAT contains one scored Reading Comprehension section, with approximately 27 questions in total. This section contains four sets of reading questions, which follow a selection of reading material (up to 460 words per reading material). Each single reading material is followed by five to eight questions regarding the reading. One set of questions out of the total four contains two related shorter passages, which the LSAC calls Comparative Reading (CR).

Experimental Section

The experimental section of the LSAT is an additional (unscored) multiple-choice section. Test takers are not aware which the experimental section is because it blends, quite well, with the rest of the test. The experimental section can either be an extra Analytical Reasoning section, Logical Reasoning section, or Reading Comprehension section. In the LSAT, there will always be one AR section, one RC section, and two LR sections.

Writing Sample

Although administered separately, the LSAT writing sample is an important part of the Law School Admissions Test. The Writing Sample section of the test is not scored by the Law School Admissions Council (LSAC); however, it does get passed along to the law schools you apply to. The majority of law schools require applicants to have a writing sample in their file, and it is often an integral part of the admissions process, although not the main one.

Volkell,1983-01-01 Research Prep. LSAT McKay Research,Kat McKay J D,2019-11-27 www.researchprep.comThe Law School Admission Test LSAT is comprised of several question types These are designed to measure a test taker s ability to succeed in law school The question types include logical reasoning analytical reasoning reading comprehension and an unscored writing sample Research Prep LSAT will prepare you to score highly on all of these questions This book contains over 350 LSAT practice questions as well as MCKAY RESEARCH guiding strategies Over 300 of the questions in the book are actual LSAT test questions that appeared on prior tests This book will show you how to tackle all of the questions and it will let you practice with over 350 MCKAY RESEARCH and LSAT Prep questions Logical Reasoning Questions Logical reasoning questions present test takers with a short passage of about one paragraph Logical reasoning questions require test takers to consider the reasoning within the paragraph and choose the best answer from multiple possible answers Test takers must critically examine evaluate analyze or complete the argument made in the paragraph Analytical Reasoning Questions Analytical reasoning questions present a short passage to test takers that delineates a factual scenario A rule or list of conditions is set forth beneath the passage These rules or conditions must be adhered to by test takers as they work within the scenario to answer questions Several questions relate to each passage and rule list or list of conditions The questions ask test takers to determine ordering grouping and other various relationships that could exist within the scenario In order to achieve a correct answer the rule list and any new question specific rules or instructions must be adhered to The questions ask test takers to perform deceptively simple tasks such as arranging package deliveries in order scheduling appointments in time slots distributing spots for admission and organizing seating arrangements around tables However the detailed rule list and question specific requirements make these questions especially challenging Reading Comprehension Questions Reading comprehension questions present to test takers three lengthy reading passages and one set of comparative reading passages these are two shorter passages that you consider together Reading comprehension questions ask five to eight detailed questions about each passage or set of comparative passages The questions require you to demonstrate a detailed understanding of what you have read test takers succeed when they can thoroughly comprehend the reading Passage topics are varied they most often include humanities science legal and social science texts However other types of passages will sometimes be included by the test writers The three lengthy passages generally reflect sophisticated writing and vocabulary and can contain unusual complexities in argument structure and viewpoint The two shorter comparative reading passages require test takers to consider the relationship of one passage to the other test takers answer questions regarding points made in one and then juxtapose these to counterpoints made in the other Test takers will also consider individual applications of principles and the principles themselves as well as generalities and specific instances in relation to passage arguments and descriptions The Writing Sample The writing sample is the essay portion of the LSAT While the writing sample is mandatory it is not graded and is therefore not a part of your LSAT score Law schools independently evaluate each applicant s LSAT writing sample after receiving the potential law student s application LSAT Prep 2022-2023
