Lucien Leuwen Two The Telegraph:

Lucien Leuwen Stendhal, 1950      The Politics of the Center Vincent E. Starzinger, This is a study of what it means both strategically and intellectually to take the center position in politics The two specific political centers considered are the efforts in France and England after the Napoleonic Wars to establish middle class rule as a permanent center or juste milieu between the extremes of revolution and reaction The four prototypical political thinkers examined are Pierre Paul Royer Collard and Francois Pierre Guillaume Guizot in France and the English reform Whigs Henry Peter Brougham and Thomas Babington Macaulay Starzinger carefully explains his choice of these critical figures emphasizing in his new introduction a current climate of opinion that is far more appreciative of their contribution to modern constitutional government than the critics have been in the past This is much more than an historical study It is an effort to examine the enduring ideas and dynamics of political centrism which help explain why the center sometimes proves to be a hopeless position but in other circumstances can hold or even vanquish its foes to left and right The work is highlighted by a comparative mode of analysis which explores these questions with sustained sensitivity to the differing social and political contexts of 19th century France and England Starzinger also considers the moral dilemma of those who hold the middle ground He asks whether such a center position must always lead to opportunism as its critics claim or may instead serve some high ethical purpose Finally in examining the juste milieu concepts of sovereignty representation freedom and history he addresses critically the classic question of what indeed the relationship is between political ideas and underlying social class This book will be of interest to both political scientists and historians      Stendhal: Education of a Novelist Strickland, 1974-08-15      Telegraphic Imperialism Deep Kanta Lahiri Choudhury, 2010-10-27 The first electronic communication network transformed language distance and time This book researches the telegraph system of the British Indian Empire c 1850 to 1920 exploring one of the most significant transnational phenomena of the imperial world and the link between communication Empire and social change      Real Time David F. Bell, 2010-10-01 In Real Time David F Bell explores the decisive impact the accelerated movement of people and information had on the fictions of four giants of French realism Balzac Stendhal Dumas and Zola Nineteenth century technological advances radically altered the infrastructure of France changing the ways ordinary citizens and literary characters viewed time space distance and speed The most influential of these advances included the improvement of the stagecoach the growth of road and canal networks leading to the advent of the railway and the increasing use of mail and of the optical telegraph Citing examples from a wide range of novels and stories Bell demonstrates the numerous ways in which these trends of acceleration became not just literary devices and themes but also structuring principles of the novels themselves Beginning with both the provincial and the Parisian communications networks of Balzac Bell proceeds to discuss the roles of horses and optical telegraphs in Stendhal and the importance of domination of communication channels to the characters of Dumas whose Count of Monte Cristo might be seen as the ultimate fictional master of this accelerated culture Finally Bell analyzes the cinematic vision created by the arrival of the railroad as depicted by Zola in La B te Humaine      Lucien Leuwen Stendhal,1951      Stendhal as Economist Alfred H.
