historian and her unhappy experiences at Oxford are major themes of her memoir The book is greatly enhanced by Susan Davies Introduction family tree and other materials offering valuable new insights and information for historians those interested in women's lives and scholars of Australian autobiography First time readers as well as those already familiar with Solid Bluestone Foundations will welcome this elegant new edition of Kathleen Fitzpatrick's charming recollection of an Australian childhood Creating Australian Television Drama Susan Lever, 2020-11-13 Television drama has been the dominant form of popular storytelling for more than sixty years shaping the imaginations of millions of people This book surveys the careers of the central creators of those stories for Australian television the writers who learnt how to work in a new medium adapting to its constraints and exploring its creative possibilities Informed by interviews with many writers it describes the establishment of Australian television drama production observing the way writers grasped the creative and business opportunities that television presented It examines the development of Australian versions of the major television genres the sitcom the police drama the historical series docudrama and social drama presenting a canon of significant Australian television drama productions that deserve to be remembered It offers an account of the emergence of work by Indigenous writers for television and it argues for the consideration of television drama alongside histories of Australian film and stage drama For years Susan Lever has been talking to Australia s best television writers about their work their craft and their industry Now it s all here in this book a toast to a vital part of Australian culture Geoffrey Atherden This is a wonderful book Meticulously researched and engagingly written it tells in fascinating detail from the writers points of view the story of Australian scripted television from its beginnings in the 1950 s to the present Better yet Susan Lever has allowed the writers themselves to speak about the work about their visions and processes their joys and frustrations I am delighted to see television drama docudrama and comedy acknowledged so generously for their role in Australian culture Sue Smith Brilliantly researched lucid comprehensive the big picture on writers for the small screen in Australia Ian David Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods, 2008-02-21 Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who s Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel Sand in Our Souls Leone Huntsman, 2001 Images of the beach pervade Australian popular culture However the deeper significance of the experience of the beach and its influence on Australian culture generally have not yet been seriously explored How why and when did the beach become part of the Australian way of life In Sand in our Souls Leone Huntsman describes the forces and pressures that encouraged or impeded Australians enjoyment of sand and surf from early enjoyment of bathing through nearly a century of repressive restrictions to freedom won in the face of drawn out opposition The ways in which artists writers film makers and the advertising industry have depicted the beach are examined for the light they throw on the beach s significance She traces the development of a distinctively Australian way of being at the beach suggesting that the beach experience has been absorbed into our emerging culture and continues to shape it in subtle ways Huntsman s provocative arguments will stimulate debate on the concept of national identity appropriate for a new Australian century and promote a deeper understanding of an aspect of life in Australia that is cherished by many of those who live here
