Lucky Me Mark Evan, 2012-05-19 In a heart-warming, hilarious, intriguing and gut-wrenching true story Mark Evan, an everyday man in California, seeks a means to beat the odds in Las Vegas and in doing so explores the past, present and future of his own life as well as the ins and outs of modern life in general Written in the form of a 118-day journal, this no-holds-barred journey begins with an attempt to devise a successful sports betting system and winds up with a deeply personal view into the life of a fascinating and unique individual Evan writes, "We are all voyeurs. We are Peeping Toms. We like to watch as others struggle through their lives, comparing their circumstances and decisions with our own contrasting outcomes and consequences, vicariously reveling in achievements and crying over failures; it is human nature. Nowhere else will the reader find a more rigorously honest and thoughtful account of a modern-day life in America"

Good Enough Wendi Nunnery, 2020-10-20 You've checked all the boxes. You've followed all the rules. But something has still gone terribly wrong. This is where Wendi Nunnery, Jesus follower, college graduate and newlywed, found herself eleven years ago. After years of meeting all the expectations set for a good Christian girl, she was suddenly spiraling into an unknown terror she would later discover was Obsessive Compulsive Disorder and questioning everything she'd ever known about herself and about God. It took nearly a decade but eventually Wendi learned her value was fixed. Finished. Holy. And it's in the pages of this book where she lays out the story of how and invites you to come along, find a friend and realize you are not alone in your wandering.

Driven by thoughtful poignant essays with just the right amount of colorful language Good Enough tackles the lie that we are required to be perfect in order to be good and most importantly reveals the truth about how much we've already been given

Uphill One Way Raymond L. Dykens, 2018-11-29 The distance from Raymond Dykens's house to his one room schoolhouse in Jasper County Missouri was less than two miles with a climb of exactly twenty four feet As a result there is no disputing that Raymond walked uphill one way to school every day In a delightful collection of anecdotes that include recollections by his brothers and fascinating photographs Raymond shares true experiences from 1947 through 1956 that reveal what it was like to learn in a one room country school that included teachings not only at his desk but also outside the classroom His colorful stories detail many life lessons learned from eating possum grapes and green apples riding his horse to school sharing an outhouse with a seasonal black snake and a few black widow spiders listening to the same story about Dick and Jane and a dog named Spot overcoming a stuttering problem with help from a compassionate and determined teacher and committing a crime that caused him to spend an afternoon with his nose firmly planted within a ring drawn on the blackboard Uphill One Way shares a retired educator's childhood learning experiences that highlight the value of the one room country school and its impact on America and the public school system
