Modern East Asia juxtaposes Western racial constructions of East Asians with constructions of race and their outcomes in modern East Asia. It is the first endeavor to explicitly and coherently link constructions of race and racism in both regions. These constructions have not only played a decisive role in shaping the relations between the West and East Asia since the mid nineteenth century but also exert substantial influence on current relations and mutual images in both the East West nexus and East Asia. Written by some of the field's leading authorities, this groundbreaking 21 chapter volume offers an analysis of these constructions, their evolution and their interrelations.
