Cohen,Ingeborg K. Helling,2014-05-19 This volume contains the English translation of Felix Kaufmann s 1895 1945 main work Methodenlehre der Sozialwissenschaften 1936 In this book Kaufmann develops a general theory of knowledge of the social sciences in his role as a cross border commuter between Husserl s phenomenology Kelsen s pure theory of law and the logical positivism of the Vienna Circle This multilayered inquiry connects the value oriented reflections of a general philosophy of science with the specificity of the methods and theories of the social sciences as opposed to abstract natural science and psychology The core focus of the study is the attempt to elucidate how and under what conditions scientific knowledge about social facts empirically justified and theoretically embedded can be obtained The empirical basis of knowledge within the social sciences forms a phenomenological concept of experience According to Kaufmann this concept of experience exhibits a complex structure Within the meaning interpretation of human action as the core of knowledge in the social sciences this structure reaches out across the isolated act of verification toward the synthesis of external and internal experiences The book opens with a detailed and useful introduction by Ingeborg K Helling which introduces the historical and theoretical background of Kaufmann s study and specifically illuminates his relation to Alfred Sch tz and John Dewey

Finally it contains interviews with and letters to members of his family colleagues and students The Interrelation of Phenomenology, Social Sciences and the Arts Michael Barber, Jochen Dreher, 2013-11-04 This book features papers written by renowned international scholars that analyze the interdependence of art phenomenology and social science The papers show how the analysis of the production as well as the perception and interpretation of art work needs to take into consideration the subjective viewpoint of the artist in addition to that of the interpreter Phenomenology allows a description of the subjectively centered life world of the individual actor artist or interpreter and the objective structures of literature music and the aesthetic domain in general The perspective of social science serves to reconstruct the socio historical structure involved in the creation and reception of the art work The authors concentrate on this specific theoretical focus which combines both phenomenology and social science and offers an innovative framework for the analysis of works of art from the fields of literature music visual arts photography and film Some of the contributions present creative interpretations of a variety of distinct art works in addition to the realization of theoretical reflections on the interdependence of arts phenomenology and social science This book features papers that were presented at the international and interdisciplinary conference Phenomenology Social Sciences and the Arts held at the University of Konstanz May 2009 in commemoration of philosopher and social scientist Alfred Schutz the developer of phenomenologically oriented sociology It will appeal to researchers scholars and students in phenomenology social sciences art theory and the arts The Visionary Realism of quality attached to some object or phenomenon and can be used as either an adverbial modifier or a proper noun In its appearances as a procedural term absolute mostly conveys a negative connotation when evaluating some action The question posed in this book is not what absolute is but what possibilities exist with regard to perceiving and conceptualizing it in human terms both historically and in the present Political Demonology Richard Faber, 2018-01-05 The structural core problem of the Gnostic dualism between the god of creation and the god of redemption governs not only every religion of salvation and redemption It is immanently given in every world in need of change and renewal inescapably and ineradicably The lord of a world in need of change that is a misconceived world and the liberator the creator of a transformed new world cannot be good friends They are so to speak enemies by definition Whether Theodor W Adorno and Walter Benjamin or Erich Auerbach and Hans Blumenberg Ernst Bloch and Jacob Taubes or Carl Schmitt cited above all of them have been more or less fascinated or awed by the dualistic theology of St Paul's disciple Marcion and have as prominently and as differently referred to him Already Adolf von Harnack author of the Marcion monograph that even today sets the standard was aware of the timeliness of his research object in view of a modern Marcionism right after the First World War Bibliography of Semiotics, 1975-1985 Viktoria Eschbach-Szabo, 1986-01-01 This bibliography of semiotic studies covering the years 1975-1985 impressively reveals the world wide intensification in the field During this decade national semiotic societies have been founded all over the world a great number of international national and local semiotic conferences have taken place the number of periodicals and book series devoted to semiotics has increased as has the number of books and dissertations in the field This bibliography is the result of a dedicated effort to approach complete coverage Ludwig von Mises My years with Ludwig von Mises, dt.
