The World of Aufbau Peter Schrag, 2019-03-19 Aufbau a German language weekly published in New York and circulated nationwide was an essential platform for the generation of refugees from Hitler and the displaced people and concentration camp survivors who arrived in the United States after the war The publication served to link thousands of readers looking for friends and loved ones in every part of the world In its pages Aufbau focused on concerns that strongly impacted this community in the aftermath of World War II anti-Semitism in the United States and in Europe the ever-changing immigration and naturalization procedures debates about the designation of Hitler refugees as enemy aliens questions about punishment for the Holocaust and other Nazi crimes the struggle for compensation and restitution and the fight for a Jewish homeland The book examines the columns and advertisements that chronicled the social and cultural life of that generation and maintained a detailed account of German speaking cultures in exile Peter Schrag is the first to present a definitive account of the influential publication that brought postwar refugees together and into the American mainstream

Narrating the Holocaust Andrea Reiter, Patrick Camiller, 2004-12-01 In this literary study of memoirs describing at first hand the horrors of German concentration camps the principal question asked is How did the survivors find the words to talk about experiences hitherto unknown even unimaginable Beyond being a mere analysis of discourse Narrating the Holocaust reflects the situations in camp that triggered these responses and shows how the professional authors adapted certain literary genres e.g. the travel story the Hassidic tale to serve as models for communication while the vast majority who were not trained as writers merely used the form of the report A comparison between these memoirs and the more frequently discussed camp novel identifies the different narrative strategies by which the two are determined Most of the 130 texts discussed here were published in German between 1934 and the present some famous Italian French and Polish texts have also been included for comparison
