Migration from Turkey to Western Europe, 1960-1974 Ahmet Akgunduz, 2017-12-22 Groundbreaking in its comprehensiveness this book illuminates the migration of workers from Turkey to Western Europe with new perspectives previously overlooked in research Indeed this is the first study of its kind to cover the entire migration process making extensive use of primary as well as secondary sources in four languages and it draws on both the historiography and the social sciences of migration It presents new analyses of the so called push factors behind this movement and explores the role of the sending state the system and channels through which labour exits the labouring population s attitudes towards moving to the West and the relevance of social networks in the migration process The volume offers a critical assessment of the significance of Turkish labour migration with regard to the demand for foreign labour in Europe with particular emphasis on the cases of Germany and the Netherlands Migrants in Europe Hans Buechler, Judith M. Buechler, 1987-10-20

Although studies have been made of individual aspects of the problem this volume is the first to provide a comprehensive overview of both the theoretical issues and the scope and variety of present day migratory movements in Europe together with their historical antecedents In his introduction Hans Buechler reviews significant previous research and outlines the theoretical framework of the present volume The primary focus of the chapters that follow is the experience of migrants and of household members who remain at home analyzed within the total context of migration in both host and sender countries The effects of migration on family economy and kin relationships are examined in detail Among the issues explored are economic decision making processes in migrant households the implications of migration for family landholding ties between migrants and family left behind and kin friendship and neighborhood networks Other topics considered are the working and social environment experienced by migrants labor policies and restrictions relating to employment work permits and workers families and the problems connected with returning home The final section a bibliographic essay by Judith Maria Buechler helps to put the various individual contributions in a wider perspective Negotiating Europe's Immigration Frontiers
