Outdoor Recreation for 21st Century America H. Ken Cordell, 2004 This book provides recreation planners public land managers academicians media students industry and others interested in outdoor recreation with a resource describing trends in Americans participation in outdoor recreation This book is a professional information resource to be used in planning decision making marketing and documentation Includes descriptions of short term and long term trends from 1960 to 2001 participation in different groups of outdoor activities participation and trends by type of outdoor resource or setting e g forest farm marine and comparisons across major metropolitan areas across regions and states and between enthusiasts and others Subject Areas Outdoor Recreation Public Administration Group Games & Activity Leadership Kenneth J. Bulik, 2000 This book has been compiled over many years to fill the need for a comprehensive reference for group games The 500 plus activities in Group Games Activity Leadership are intended to be used as a reference in the planning of larger group activities Some of the activities are new Many will remind readers of neighborhood games they played as youngsters and others will bring fond recollections to parents and grandparents This is primarily a book which has been designed to recall to the leader s mind familiar and not forgotten activities Detailed instructions including number of players required accessories dimensions of playing areas and illustrations of team formations accompany the game and activity descriptions The book is presented as a guide in which the old and new in group games will be easily understood and adapted to use in a variety of social and recreational settings The Municipal Year Book, 1999 Leisure and Leisure Services in the 21st Century Geoffrey Godbey, 2006 How will leisure and leisure services change in the twenty first century This book presents 49 issues involving changes in the environment technology values demography the economy health work and free time and governance that could drastically affect leisure and the implementation of leisure services as we enter the twenty first century Discussion questions and possible implications for leisure follow each topic These topics were chosen to encourage contemplation and discussion among students educators and leisure service professionals in order to better understand the changes occurring and how they may effect the field of leisure services and one s own personal leisure pursuits Section One introduces changes that are fueling the reinvention of leisure and discusses why leisure providers should strive to understand these changes Section Two surveys trends that are effecting or will effect the future of leisure services Section Three examines strategies that may be useful to those involved in leisure services for adjusting to and then thriving in our ever changing world

The Pivotal Role of Leisure Education Elie Cohen-Gewerc,Robert A. Stebbins,2007

Recreation for Older Adults Judith A. Sorg-Elliott,Jerold E. Elliott,1999 This book has been written for the recreation professional and anyone else who works with older adults in the field of recreation It provides low cost client intensive recreation programming ideas for older adults regardless of the level at which they are able to function Anyone working with people with disabilities may utilize these ideas but they have been designed and tested for use with older adults A majority of the activities in this book are designed for use with clients who must have individual attention from a staff member in order to participate The activities are designed for older adults who may or may not be physically frail but who exhibit many signs of confusion memory loss and or disorientation The authors philosophy evident throughout the book is that any recreational activity can and should benefit the client and even those programs that are designed simply to provide a fun filled afternoon or evening should have a goal and carry equal weight in the overall programming schedule

Introduction to Writing Goals and Objectives Suzanne Melcher,1999 Since length of stay in hospitals continues to decrease and insurance companies focus on documentation for reimbursement it is vital for recreation professionals to master documentation issues especially those of writing goals and objectives with their patients and clients Well written goals and objectives keep treatment on target and measurable and assist with justification of services This manual offers basic techniques that students interns and entry level professionals need to gain confidence when developing and writing goals and objectives with their clients and patients The exercises and case studies in this manual offer scenarios to help users build confidence by practicing the fundamentals of better documentation which will serve patients and clients recreation therapists hospitals community settings and outside reviewing organizations

Trivia by the Dozen Jean Vetter,2007 This collection of questions organized in topics fundamental to clients lives during their most independent productive years can be a catalyst for vibrant dialogue There are no trick questions and no science or math questions that might intimidate shy or slower players Songs movies clothing household items world events and other themes help stimulate memories Each category consists of twelve questions a number small enough to enable clients with limited endurance or short attention spans to play without taxing their stamina Familiar themes will help awaken recollections of happy times and set the stage for the discussion questions

Conceptual Foundations for Therapeutic Recreation David R. Austin,John Dattilo,Bryan P. McCormick,2002 This book provides empirically based theoretical perspectives on key concepts timely topics practical professional information historical and philosophical perspectives from leaders in therapeutic recreation and insight into leaders who helped advance the profession Concepts and topics include coverage of conceptual models behavior modification social support self determination and enjoyment control the therapeutic relationship therapeutic outdoor programming cultural competence evidence based practice and healthcare in America therapeutic recreation education training in physical activity making presentations attending conferences and professionalism

Intervention Activities for At-risk Youth Norma J. Stumbo, 1999 Intervention Activities for At Risk Youth is an excellent resource of tried and tested activities that work with at risk youth The chapters and activity sections are intended both for those facilities that do and do not employ professional therapeutic recreation staff The activities and goals are written in a format that staff from volunteers and childcare workers to activity staff and professional therapeutic recreation specialists can use when implementing intervention activities for at risk youth These 169 activities are meant to help professionals establish active treatment goals and encourage more positive behaviors The first three chapters provide a foundation for intervention activities The activities are divided into six sections anger control and stress management 13 activities positive physical and mental health 31 activities cooperation communication and listening 26 activities problem solving decision making and planning skills 17 activities leisure awareness and leisure resources 49 activities and friendship and social skills 33 activities

Innovations Dawn R. De Vries, Julie M. Lake, 2002 Innovations is an excellent program that addresses the physical cognitive communication emotional and social needs of long term care residents while improving or maintaining their functional abilities Innovations integrates recreation therapy and restorative nursing to make a significant improvement in the residents lives

Growing with Care Betsy Kreidler, 2002 Based on the tenets of The Eden Alternative Growing with Care offers guidance to begin indoor and outdoor gardening activities and enhance established gardening programs This valuable easy to use reference will help Homes develop a program that creates a sense of ownership empowerment and companionship for residents and clients in long term care assisted living or day community environments

Client Assessment in Therapeutic Recreation Services Norma J. Stumbo, 2002 This book fills a gap in the therapeutic recreation literature concerning client assessment It educates the reader about the importance of client assessment how assessment relates to treatment planning and programming and ways to improve the process of data collection analysis interpretation and reporting
