CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS discovered America on the 12th of October 1492 He had spent eighteen years in planning for that wonderful first voyage which he made across the Atlantic Ocean The thoughts and hopes of the best part of his life had been given to it He had talked and argued with sailors and scholars and princes and kings saying I know that by sailing west across the great ocean one may at last reach lands that have never been visited by Europeans But he had been laughed at as a foolish dreamer and few people had any faith in his projects At last however the king and queen of Spain gave him ships with which to make the trial voyage He crossed the ocean and discovered strange lands inhabited by a people unlike any that had been known before He believed that these lands were a part of India When he returned home with the news of his discovery there was great rejoicing and he was hailed as the hero who had given a new world to Spain Crowds of people lined the streets through which he passed and all were anxious to do him honor The king and queen welcomed him to their palace and listened with pleasure to the story of his voyage Never had so great respect been shown to any common man But there were some who were jealous of the discoverer and as ready to find fault as others were to praise Who is this Columbus they asked and what has he done Is he not a pauper pilot from Italy And could not any other seaman sail across the ocean just as he has done One day Columbus was at a dinner which a Spanish gentleman had given in his honor and several of these persons were present They were proud conceited fellows and they very soon began to try to make Columbus uncomfortable You have discovered strange lands beyond the sea they said But what of that We do not see why there should be so much said about it Anybody can sail across the ocean and anybody can coast along the islands on the other side just as you have done It is the simplest thing in the world Columbus made no answer but after a while he took an egg from a dish and said to the company Who among you gentlemen can make this egg stand on end
