just the details of one or two theories In this book Annas brings together the results of a wide ranging study of ancient ethical philosophy and presents it in a way that is easily accessible to anyone with an interest in ancient or modern ethics She examines the fundamental notions of happiness and virtue the role of nature in ethical justification and the relation between concern for self and concern for others Her careful examination of the ancient debates and arguments shows that many widespread assumptions about ancient ethics are quite mistaken Ancient ethical theories are not egoistic and do not depend for their acceptance on metaphysical theories of a teleological kind Most centrally they are recognizably theories of morality and the ancient disputes about the place of virtue in happiness can be seen as akin to modern disputes about the demands of morality

Conceptual-analytic Study of Classical Indian Philosophy of Morals Rajendra Prasad,2008 Using reconstructive ideas available in classical Indian original works this book makes a departure in the style of modern writings on Indian moral philosophy It presents Indian ethics in an objective secular and wherever necessary critical manner as a systematic down to earth philosophical account of moral values virtues rights and obligations It thereby refutes the claim that Indian philosophy has no ethics as well as the counter claim that it transcends ethics It demonstrates that moral living proves that the individual his society and the world are really real and not only taken to be real for behavioral purposes as the Advaitins hold the self is amoral being a non agent moksha is not a moral value and the Karmic theory because of involving belief in rebirth does not fuarantee that the doer of an action is also the experiencer of its results contrary to what is commonly held and Indian ethics can sustain itself even if such notions are dropped Rajendra Prasad calls Indian ethics organismic because along with ethical concerns it also covers issues related to professions politics administration sex environment etc Therefore in one format it is theoretical and applied normative and metaethical humanistic and non humanistic etc of course within the limits of the then cognitive enquiry Proceedings of the Merchant Marine Council United States.
