More Was Lost:

More Was Lost Eleanor Perenyi, 2016-02-16 Set in a Hungarian estate on the edge of the Carpathian Mountains this lucid and crisp memoir is a clear eyed elegy to a country and a marriage torn apart by World War II The New Yorker Best known for her classic book Green Thoughts A Writer in the Garden Eleanor Per nyi led a worldly life before settling down in Connecticut More Was Lost is a memoir of her youth abroad written in the early days of World War II after her return to the United States In 1937 at the age of nineteen Per nyi falls in love with a poor Hungarian baron and in short order acquires both a title and a struggling country estate at the edge of the Carpathians She throws herself into this life with zeal learning Hungarian and observing the invisible order of the Czech rule the resentment of the native Ruthenians and the haughtiness of the dispossessed Hungarians In the midst of massive political upheaval Per nyi and her husband remain steadfast in their dedication to their new life an alliance that will soon be tested by the war With old fashioned frankness and wit Per nyi recounts this poignant tale of how much was gained and how much more was lost More Lost Than Found Jared Herd, 2011-10-04 More Lost Than Found helps readers reconnect with a faith worth believing If you look at the statistics about people raised in the church who are now leaving it you ll realize that something has gone horribly wrong Has God s truth lost relevance The answer to this question says Jared Herd director of XP3 college ministries is an absolute no Next generation Christians are drifting from the institutional faith because they no longer see their very real struggles or their need for deep connection with God adequately addressed there In More Lost Than Found youth expert Jared Herd comes alongside anyone who has drifted from faith to reengage them with the truth they long to hear With amusing anecdotes and brilliant insight he gives readers the permission to struggle with their faith while deep down knowing they still believe it and want to believe it In this refreshing true to life message readers find a companion for their faith journey rediscover the truth they grew up believing and are invigorated to lay hold of it once again One More "lost Peace"? Raffaele

D'Agata, Lawrence Gray, 2011 Were there any missed chances to build a more peaceful world than the present one after the Cold War Were there any attempts at working out a more comprehensive and more cooperative way to overcome it What was precisely at stake during the Cold War What was really at stake for the losers and what stakes did the winners gain if there are any winners at all Those questions were raised during a seminar where some outstanding scholars were invited to discuss them plainly before an audience of young students in an ancient yet peripheral Italian university The result may be seen as a readable concentration of basic and meaningful insights that often defy a noticeable amount of conventional wisdom on the ground of careful and authoritative scholarly research More Lost Massey Lectures George Grant, Frank H. Underhill, 2008 A broadcasting fixture for more than 45 years and Canada s preeminent public lecture series the CBC s Massey Lectures feature provocative talks on pressing topics by major contemporary thinkers Some of the series finest lectures have been lost for many years unavailable to the public in any form until now More Lost Massey Lectures presents recently rediscovered talks Nobel Prize winner Willy Brandt discusses the dangerous inequities between developing and industrialized nations while Barbara Ward explains the origin and predicament of underdeveloped countries and Frank Underhill speaks on the deficiencies of the Canadian constitution George Grant's talk on the worsening predicament of the West through an examination of Friedrich Nietzsche is joined by Claude Levi Strauss on the nature of myth and its role in human history Not only of considerable historical significance these lectures remain hugely relevant in the 21st century Also included is an introduction by veteran CBC producer Bernie Lucht
