Transnationalism in East and Southeast Asian Comics Art John A. Lent, Wendy Siuyi Wong, Benjamin Wai-ming Ng, 2022-10-03 This book explores various aspects of transnationalism and comics art in six East Asian and seven Southeast Asian countries/territories. The 14 richly illustrated chapters embrace comics, cartoons, and animation relative to offshore production, transnational ownership, multinational collaboration, border crossings of comics art creators and characters, expansion of overseas markets, cartoonists in political exile, colonial underpinnings, adaptation of foreign styles and formats, representation of other cultures, and more. Using case studies, historical accounts, descriptive overviews, individual artists' profiles, and representational analyses, and fascinatingly told through techniques as document use, interviews, observation, and textual analyses, the end result is a thorough, interesting, and compact volume on transnationalism and comics art in East and Southeast Asia. The Timberman, 1929 Morgan Le Fay 4 Fay Sampson, 2005-01-01 The young bard Taliesin comes to the court of King Urien and Queen Morgan. His dream is to make an immortal song about the deeds of King Arthur. His fear is that he was born too late; Arthur is ageing. He uncovers the dark secret of the birth of Morgan's foster son Modred. He aches for both as Morgan tries to bring Arthur and Modred together. But treachery has already been done. The song Taliesin sings may be of Arthur's last battle. The Old Welsh Evangelist, and Other Poems William Parry, 1893 Morgan Le Fay 4: Taliesin's Telling Fay Sampson, 2023-02-16 The young bard Taliesin comes to the court of King Urien and Queen Morgan. The Riches of Morgan's Orchard David Meaton, 2021-10-28 Charting Derfal's illustrious career leading to his appointment as a squadron commander as a pilot in the Royal Flying Corps RFC, this tale traces the growth of a young boy into a man against the background of the First World War. Alongside the action is a tender love story between Derfal and the Stationmaster's daughter Ruby. The Haze Problem in Southeast Asia Helena Varkkey, 2015-07-16 Despite the efforts of Southeast Asian governments and of ASEAN, transboundary haze continues to be a major environmental problem in Southeast Asia. This book demonstrates that the issue is complex and explains why efforts to solve the problem in purely political terms are ineffective and likely to continue to be ineffective. The book shows how state-led, state-incentivised agribusiness development lies at the heart of the problem, leading to a large rise in palm oil production with extensive clearing of forests leading to deliberate or accidental fires and the resulting haze Moreover although the forest clearing is occurring in Indonesia many of the companies involved are Malaysian and Singaporean and further many of these companies have close relationships with the politicians and officials responsible for addressing the problem and who thereby have a conflict of interest The author concludes by discussing the huge difficulties involved in overturning this system of patronage politics
