Hugo Wolf and his Mörike Songs Susan Youens, 2000-06-22 Viennese composer Hugo Wolf produced one of the most important song collections of the nineteenth century when he set to music fifty three poems by the great German poet Eduard Mörike Susan Youens reappraises this singular collaboration to shed new light on the sophisticated interplay between poetry and music in the songs Wolf is customarily described as the Poet's Composer someone who revered poetry and served it faithfully in his music Yet as Youens reveals this cliché overlooks the rich terrain in which his songs are often at cross purposes with his chosen poetry Although Wolf did much to draw the world's attention to the neglected Swabian poet his musical interpretation of the poetry was also influenced by his own life psychology and experiences This book examines selected Mörike songs in detail demonstrating that the poems and music each have their own distinctive stories which at times intersect but also diverge Mozart's Journey to Prague and Selected Poems Eduard Mörike, 2003-05-01 The novella Mozart's Journey to Prague 1855 is an imaginary recreation of the journey Mozart made from Vienna in 1787 to conduct the first performance of Don Giovanni Set in the rococo world of the Bohemian nobility it is a charming and playful evocation of Mozart's inner life and creative processes Mörike is one of Germany's greatest lyric poets after Goethe His poetry combines classicism romanticism with elements of the traditional folk or fairy tale This edition contains all the poems for which he is most admired including the comic idyll The Auld Weathercock Eduard Mörike: Poems Eduard Friedrich Mörike, 1960

Selected Poems [of] Friedrich Hölderlin [and] Eduard Mörike Friedrich Hölderlin, 1972 Selected Poems Friedrich Hölderlin, Eduard Mörike, 1973-05-01 Eduard Mörike Herbert Meyer, 1965 Eduard Mörike Margaret Mare, 2020-01-30 Originally published in 1957 this was the first biography and full account of Eduard Mörike's works to appear in English One of the greatest German lyric poets Mörike is according to some critics equal to Goethe as a lyricist This book was the first attempt to analyse Mörike's highly suggestive drawings some of which are reproduced in the book The contents of poems are summarized so no prior knowledge of German is assumed and a large number of poems are quoted in full The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e.g. Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators Poems by Eduard Morike Eduard Friedrich Mörike,1959 Eduard Mörike Helga Slessarev,1970
