

Good Morning

Good morning, sky;
Good morning, sun;
Good morning, little winds that run!

Good morning, birds;
Good morning, trees;
And creeping grass, and brownie bees!

How did you find out it was day?
Who told you night had gone away?
I'm wide awake;
I'm up now, too.
I'll be right out to play with you!

The Morning of the Poem James Schuyler, 1980 The Morning of the Poem James Schuyler, 1981-04-01 The flowers trees birds clouds and effects of light that Schuyler describes with such lan even if only glimpsed from the window of his apartment could easily be transposed to the poetry written in Japan or Persia many centuries ago Even more his culture and learning worn so lightly as almost to pass unnoticed link his verse to other and larger traditions as in this reflection on Baudelaire clearly intended as an artistic credo of sorts Open Letters Monthly Morning Poems Robert Bly, 2009-10-06 Morning Poems is a sensational collection Robert Bly s best in many years Inspired by the example of William Stafford Bly decided to embark on the project of writing a daily poem Every morning he would stay in bed until he had completed the day s work These little adventures In Morning longing as he calls them address classic poetic subjects childhood the seasons death and heaven in a way that capitalizes fully on the pun in the book s title These are morning poems full of the delight and mystery of waking in a new day and they also do their share of mourning elegizing the deceases and capturing the moment of sorrow before creation Some of the poems are dialogues where unconventional speakers include mice maple trees bundles of grain the body the oldest mind and the soul A particularly moving sequence involves Bly s imaginative transactions with a great and unlikely precursor Wallace Stevens The whole is a fascinating and original book from one of our most fascinating authors David Lehman The New Morning: Poems Alfred Noyes, 2019-12-16 Alfred Noyes s The New Morning Poems is a compelling collection that captures the essence of early 20th century poetic innovation through its vivid imagery and musicality Noyes employs an elegant yet accessible style weaving together themes of nature love and the passage of time reflecting the Romantic influences inherent in his work The poems serve as a testament to the transitional period in literature where traditional forms meet modern sensibilities allowing readers to experience a rich tapestry of emotional and intellectual engagement Noyes born in England in 1880 was profoundly influenced by the tumultuous events of his time including the rise of modernism and the impact of World War I on societal values His background as both a poet and a playwright combined with his fascination with folklore and mythology imbues The New Morning with a deep sense of emotional resonance and introspection inviting readers to ponder existential themes while being enchanted by the music of his verse This collection is a must read for those who appreciate the power of language and the beauty of lyrical verse Noyes s ability to evoke profound emotions through his imagery makes The New Morning Poems not only a significant literary work but also an enriching experience for any lover of poetry Morning Clouds Being Divers Poems by Henry Bellyse Baidon, B.A. Cantab. House,2010-11-22 By The Morning of Our Healing contains poems with passion depth sincerity and the stuff of living They convey honestly and vigorously the joys pains and rough resolutions of living and loving in the world The book calls the reader to reflect on that invisible contract we all have with life Remember that naive and idealistic state of sweet young love becoming aware for the first time of the immense power of the ocean or the unpredictable impact of growling death In response we are all called to show up and participate These poems convey one man s journey through these unique yet universal experiences With confusion and anxiety joy and sudden pleasure the book takes the reader on a powerful journey through the geography of relationships The book calls to mind the awareness that suffering does not stop us from succeeding Healing happens all the time and in quite gentle and subtle ways The book reaches into scenes and senses of living loving and loss It reflects the wisdom triumphs and tragedies encountered along the way Expressed here as well is how we are shaped by the power of the wind the grandeur of the mountains the ethereal presence of the ocean and God's subtle voice in all You will find here an eclectic collection of poems Some are as serious as leaving home Others are as carefree as an ice cream sundae Hopefully you will identify with and hear echoes of your own voice and journey These friendly poems will take you on a pleasant and challenging ride through living and loving that may get your heart pumping again and remind you that you are still alive and the fat lady hasn't sung yet A Study of the Poems of D. H. Lawrence M. Lockwood, 1987-12-08 Joy in the Morning Claude Wilkinson, 2004 Joy in the Morning alludes to Psalm 30 5 Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning These poems ultimately point to the inherent rewards of continuation and survival as the Scripture suggests while they also pun on the words morning mourning to reveal ways in which joy can be found even amid suffering The sure joy Claude Wilkinson offers readers is this nature's delicate details and memory's refining power Tender astonishing depictions of an iridescent beetle a jazz funeral rural poverty transformed by a mother's love carry the theme in lyrical form Joy in the Morning are poems of strong emotion and exquisite artistry
