the spring of 1936 Kay Garland embraces an exciting new life of glamour when she becomes companion to Russian Konstantin Denisov's daughter Miranda. The two girls become firm friends and when Miranda falls in love with a young Parisian Kay helps her keep the relationship secret. But Konstantin learns of the affair and promptly dismisses Kay, leaving her penniless and stranded in Nazi Berlin. By chance she meets Tom Blacklock who pays for her ticket home and is destined to play an important part in her life. As for Miranda she makes a decision that will put her in the path of disaster. With the outbreak of war come death and destruction and for both women consuming passion along with the fear of losing all that they hold dear. After Hitler's defeat there are new dangers and opportunities to find love where least expected. What readers are saying about The Heart of the Night: Ms Lennox's writing is truly amazing and creates characters that remain with me after the last page is turned. This is a book to lose yourself in. The book is beautifully written; the author evokes an atmosphere so that you feel as if you are actually there. The best Lennox novel.
