Marrakech (Morocco), Imagined Museums Katarzyna Pieprzak, 2010-01-01 Imagined Museumsexamines the intertwined politics surrounding art and modernization in Morocco from 1912 to the present

by considering the structure of the museum not only as a modern institution but also as a national monument to modernity asking what happens when museum monuments start to crumble In an analysis of museum history exhibition policy the lack of national museum space for modern art and postmodern exhibit spaces in Morocco Katarzyna Pieprzak focuses on the role that art plays in the social fabric of a modernizing Morocco She argues that the decay of colonial and national institutions of culture has invited the rethinking of the museum and generated countermuseums to stage new narratives of art memory and modernity Through these spaces she explores a range of questions How is modernity imagined locally How are claims to modernity articulated How is Moroccan modernity challenged globally In this first cultural history of modern Moroccan art and its museums Pieprzak goes beyond the investigation of national institutions to treat the history and evolution of multiple museums from official state and corporate exhibition spaces to informal popular street level art and performance spaces as cultural architectures that both enshrine the past and look to the future Journal of Botany Berthold Seemann,1882

Journal of Botany, British and Foreign ,1882 Modern Mathematics Dirk De Bock,2023-03-08 The international New Math developments between about 1950 through 1980 are regarded by many mathematics educators and education historians as the most historically important development in curricula of the twentieth century It attracted the attention of local and international politicians of teachers and of parents and influenced the teaching and learning of mathematics at all levels kindergarten to college graduate in many nations After garnering much initial support it began to attract criticism But as Bill Jacob and the late Jerry Becker show in Chapter 17 some of the effects became entrenched This volume edited by Professor Dirk De Bock of Belgium provides an outstanding overview of the New Math modern mathematics movement Chapter authors provide exceptionally high quality analyses of the rise of the movement and of subsequent developments within a range of nations The first few chapters show how the initial leadership came from mathematicians in European nations and in the United States of America The background leaders in Europe were Caleb Gattegno and members of a mysterious group of mainly French pure mathematicians who since the 1930s had published under the name of a fictitious Nicolas Bourbaki In the United States there emerged during the 1950s various attempts to improve U S mathematics curricula and teaching especially in secondary schools and colleges This side of the story climaxed in 1957 when the Soviet Union succeeded in launching Sputnik the first satellite Undoubtedly this is a landmark publication in education The foreword was written by Professor Bob Moon one of a few other scholars to have written on the New Math from an international perspective The final epilogue chapter by Professor Geert Vanpaemel a historian draws together the overall thrust of the volume and makes links with the general history of curriculum development especially in science education including recent globalization trends A Descriptive Catalogue of the Bension Collection of Sephardic Manuscripts Saul I. Aranov,1979 This catalogue describes in precis form the contents of a magnificent collection of Sephardic manuscripts and texts that resides in the University of Alberta Library The book also provides an excellent introduction to the Sephardic Jews

Losing My Virginity Richard Branson, 2010-09-01 The unusual frequently outrageous autobiography of one of the great business geniuses of our time Richard Branson In little more than twenty five years Richard Branson spawned nearly a hundred successful ventures From the airline business Virgin Atlantic Airways to music Virgin Records and V2 to cola Virgin Cola and others ranging from financial services to bridal wear Branson has a track record second to none Many of his companies were started in the face of entrenched competition The experts said Don't do it But Branson found golden opportunities in markets in which customers have been ripped off or underserved where confusion reigns and the competition is complacent In this stressed out overworked age Richard Branson gives us a new model a dynamic hardworking successful entrepreneur who lives life to the fullest Branson has written his own rules for success creating a group of companies with a global presence but no central headquarters no management hierarchy and minimal bureaucracy Family friends fun and adventure are equally important as business in his life Losing My Virginity is a portrait of a productive sane balanced life filled with rich and colorful stories including Crash landing his hot air balloon in the Algerian desert yet remaining determined to have another go at being the first to circle the globe Signing the Sex Pistols Janet Jackson the Rolling Stones Boy George and Phil Collins Fighting back when British Airways took on Virgin Atlantic and successfully suing this pillar of the British business establishment Swimming two miles to safety during a violent storm off the coast of Mexico Staging a rescue flight into Baghdad before the start of the Gulf War And much more Losing My Virginity is the ultimate tale of personal and business survival from a man who combines the business prowess of Bill Gates and the promotional instincts of P T Barnum
