upon aesthetics as a topos of the living We seek to capture the present discourse of ethnographic and aesthetic disciplinary turns with the intent of bringing them together in theory and practice Here academics and artists approach one another s respective forms of representation in a Gesamtkunstwerk of texts and images The book presents experimental approaches and interdisciplinary turns and hoped for interactions between anthropologists and artists and recipients of aesthetic encounters. We believe this is presently the most innovative pathway to interdisciplinary encounters with aesthetics. You the readers meet us the artists and authors of an aesthetic reflexivity Are we tricksters in an aesthetic turn toward performing life and reflecting performed lives in the in betweens Dancing with the Enemy Diane Armstrong, 2022-05-01 From the bestselling author of The Collaborator comes a compelling story of betrayal collusion revenge and redemption set in German occupied Jersey during World War II June 1940 It was a perfect June evening that began with hope and ended in despair So begins the journal of Hugh Jackson a Jersey doctor whose idyllic world is shattered when Britain abandons the Channel Islands which are invaded by the Germans Forced to choose between conflicting loyalties he sends his pregnant wife to England believing their separation will be brief It's a fateful decision that will affect every aspect of his life May 1942 Young Tom Gaskell fumes whenever he sees the hated swastika flying from Fort Regent Humiliated by Jersey's surrender and ashamed of his mother's fraternisation with the occupiers Tom forms an audacious plan not suspecting that it will result in guilt and tragedy April 2019 Sydney doctor Xanthe Maxwell traumatised by the suicide of her colleague and burnt out by the relentless pressure of her hospital work travels to St Helier so she can figure out what to do with her life But when she finds Hugh Jackson's World War II journal she is plunged into a violent world of oppression and collusion but also of passion and resistance As she reads she is mystified by her growing sense of connection to the past Her deepening relationship with academic Daniel Miller helps her understand Jersey s wartime past and determine her own future By the time this novel reaches its moving climax the connection between Tom Xanthe and Hugh Jackson has been revealed in a way none of them could possibly have imagined Migrant Nation Paul Longley Arthur, 2017-12-15 Focusing on particular historical blind spots by telling stories of individuals and groups that did not fit the favoured identity mould the essays in Migrant Nation work within the gap between Australian image and experience and offer fresh insights into the other side of identity construction The volume casts light on the hidden face of Australian identity and remembers the experiences of a wide variety of people who have generally been excluded neglected or simply forgotten in the long running quest to tell a unified story of Australian culture and identity Drawing upon memories letters interviews and documentary fragments as well as rich archives the authors have in common a commitment to give life to neglected histories and thus to include in an expanding and open ended national narrative people who were cast as strangers in the place that was their home The Bibliography of Australasian Judaica 1788-2008 Serge Liberman, 2018-11-01 This bibliography includes all traceable self contained books monographs pamphlets and chapters from books which in some way pertain to Jews in Australia and New Zealand between 1788 and 2008 Born in Russia in 1942 Serge Liberman came to Australia in 1951 where he now works as a medical practitioner As author of several short story collections including On Firmer Shores A Universe of Clowns The Life That I Have Led and The Battered and the Redeemed he has three times received the Alan Marshall Award and has also been a recipient of the NSW Premier's Literary Award In addition he is compiler of two previous editions of A Bibliography of Australian Judaica Several of his titles have been set as study texts in Australian and British high schools and universities His literary work has been widely published he has been Editor and Literary Editor of several respected journals and has contributed to many other publications Reading the Garden Katie Holmes, Susan K. Martin, Kylie Mirmohamadi, 2007-05-28 Whether a small plot in the backyard of an inner urban home or a capital city's sprawling botanic garden Australians have long desired a patch of dirt to plough or enjoy Reading the garden explores our deep affection for gardens and gardening and illuminates their numerous meanings and uses from European settlement to the late twentieth century Cover My Mother's Spice Cupboard Elana Benjamin, 2018-11-01 My Mother's Spice Cupboard is the true story of the author's Sephardi Jewish family's migration from Baghdad to Bombay now Mumbai to Sydney Unlike most other Australian Jews her parents were born and grew up in Bombay and her grandparents came from Iraq Burma and India Her father's family immigrated to Sydney her mother's to Los Angeles both in the 1960s They married in Sydney and raised their family there alongside the father's many brothers and sisters and members of their former Bombay community Despite being Jewish her upbringing was greatly influenced by the food language and culture of India and to a lesser extent Iraq My Mother s Spice Cupboard is the story of what happened to a community which no longer exists how its members built new lives in a different country and what it was like to grow up as one of their children It's also about how much things have changed over four generations in one family The author's grandparents arranged marriage produced nine children both her parents grew up within the confines of Bombay s insular Baghdadi Jewish community whereas she grew up as a first generation Australian in Sydney Her children's lives are underpinned by the differing Jewish traditions of her family and her husband's family The themes underlying the story are those of family and community versus individuality choice versus obligation and tradition versus modernity And underlying the entire narrative is the importance of food and cooking which goes beyond the mere provision of sustenance to express warmth love and hospitality Pieces of Ease and Grace Alan Cadwallader, 2013-12-31 The previous volume of essays Five Uneasy Pieces was warmly received People of faith and spirituality were looking for liberating understandings of the Bible in engagement with their own sexualities and those of friends family and beyond The book demonstrated clearly that oppressive uses of selected texts from the Bible were invalid But more is needed The obligation upon scriptural scholars is to establish scripture s hospitable inclusion of those whose sexual identities have been subjected to such oppression Pieces of Ease and Grace retrieves biblical texts as actively embracing gays and lesbians within the community of faith Their stories profoundly intersect with those of scripture Here is a collection of biblical essays on sexuality and welcome that restores the Bible as a book of grace to those whose sexual identities had previously been lost or condemned in interpretation

Jewish Studies and Holocaust Education in Poland Lynn W. Zimmerman, 2014-01-23
This volume examines how people in Poland learn about Jewish life culture and history including the Holocaust The main text provides background on concepts such as culture identity and stereotypes as well as on specific topics such as Holocaust education as curriculum various educational institutions and the connection of arts and cultural festivals to identity and culture It also gives a brief overview of Polish history and Jewish history in Poland as well as providing insight into how the Holocaust and Jewish life and culture are viewed and taught in present day Poland This background material is supported by essays by Poles who have been active in the changes that have taken place in Poland since 1989 A young Jewish Polish man gives insight into what it is like to grow up in contemporary Poland and a Jewish Polish woman who was musical director and conductor of the Jewish choir Tslil gives her view of learning through the arts Essays by Polish scholars active in Holocaust education and curriculum design give past present and future perspectives of learning about Jewish history and culture
