Reclaiming San Francisco James Brook,Chris Carlsson,Nancy J. Peters,City Lights Books,1998 Reclaiming San Francisco

is an anthology of fresh appraisals of the contrarian spirit of the city a spirit resistant to authority or control The official story of San Francisco is one of progress development and growth But there are other unofficial San Francisco stories often shrouded in myth and in danger of being forgotten and they are told here stories of immigrants and minorities sailors and waterfront workers and poets artists and neighborhood activists along with the stories of speculators land grabbers and the land itself that need to be told differently Contributors include historians geographers poets novelists artists art historians photographers journalists citizen activists an architect and an anthropologist Passionate about the city they want San Francisco to be more itself and less like the city of office towers chain stores theme parks and privatized public services and property that appears to be its immediate fate San Francisco is not alone in being transformed according to the dictates of the global economy But San Franciscans are unusual in their readiness to confront the corporate agenda for their city

Christian Preaching Michael Pasquarello III, 2011-06-28 Michael Pasquarello has written a must read book articulating a Trinitarian vision for preaching His compelling argument is richly informed by traditional biblical hermeneutics creedal history understood as storied attestation of the witness of Scripture and liturgical theology and practice considered as embodied performance of the Bible's divine narrative Here is a clear summons to the church to abandon all lesser homiletic aims and to prayerfully and faithfully proclaim the holy gospel to the glory of God Charles L Bartow Princeton Theological Seminary Like all of Michael Pasquarello's work his newest book not only upholds the classical Christian tradition but also breathes new vitality into it In an era in which preaching is reduced to persuasive communication Pasquarello reminds us that the Christian message has a content that originates in and gives expression to the Father Son and Holy Spirit Richard Lischer Duke Divinity School One of the refreshing things about this fine book by Michael Pasquarello is that when he thinks about the ministry of preaching he is not afraid to measure the breadth historically or plumb the depths theologically Pasquarello has written this book like a good sermon faithfully thoughtfully prayerfully and with a profound word to speak We are in his debt Thomas G Long Candler School of Theology Boldly challenging homiletical accommodation to American culture Pasquarello seeks to change the subject of preaching from method and marketing to the Triune God who is the source and goal of our speech A welcome theological vision of preaching Charles L Campbell Columbia Theological Seminary Christian Preaching brings together two disciplines that have sadly grown apart such that they almost developed irreconcilable differences preaching and theology Pasquarello offers a brilliant critique of theology as technique and draws on the theology and sermons of Irenaeus Augustine Luther Wesley and others convincingly demonstrating that effective pragmatic preaching requires substantive theological engagement and vice versa This book accomplishes its purpose so well that it should be used not only in preaching courses but also in basic theology courses No preacher should be let loose on a congregation without passing through Pasquarello's Christian Preaching D Stephen Long Marquette University Fodor's Italy 2014 Fodor's, 2013-10-01 Fodor's Italy 2014 is the essential ebook companion This updated ebook edition highlights
