The Most Beautiful Girl in the World Sarah

Banet-Weiser,2023-04-28 Sarah Banet Weiser complicates the standard feminist take on beauty pageants in this intriguing look at a hotly contested but enduringly popular American ritual She focuses on the Miss America pageant in particular considering its claim to be an accurate representation of the diversity of contemporary American women Exploring the cultural constructions and legitimations that go on during the long process of the pageant Banet Weiser depicts the beauty pageant stage as a place where concerns about national identity cultural hopes and desires and anxieties about race and gender are crystallized and condensed The beauty pageant she convincingly demonstrates is a profoundly political arena deserving of serious study Drawing on cultural criticism ethnographic research and interviews with pageant participants and officials The Most Beautiful Girl in the World illustrates how contestants invent and reinvent themselves while articulating the female body as a national body Banet Weiser finds that most pageants are characterized by the ambivalence of contemporary liberal feminism which encourages individual achievement self determination and civic responsibility while simultaneously promoting very conventional notions of beauty The book explores the many different aspects of the Miss America pageant including the swimsuit the interview and the talent competitions It also takes a closer look at some extraordinary Miss Americas such as Bess Myerson the first Jewish Miss America Vanessa Williams the first African American Miss America and Heather Whitestone the first Miss America with a disability Sarah Banet Weiser complicates the standard feminist take on beauty pageants in this intriguing look at a hotly contested but enduringly popular American ritual She focuses on the Miss America pageant in particular considering its claim to be an accurate

White Richard Dyer, 2017-09-19 Now twenty years since its initial release Richard Dyer's classic text White remains a groundbreaking and insightful study of the representation of whiteness in Western visual culture White explores how while racial representation is central to the organisation of the contemporary world white people have remained a largely unexamined category in sharp contrast to the many studies of images of black and Asian peoples Looking beyond the apparent unremarkability of whiteness Dyer demonstrates the importance of analysing images of white people Dyer places this representation within the contexts of Christianity race and colonialism In a series of absorbing case studies he shows the construction of whiteness in the technology of photography and film as part of a wider culture of light discusses heroic white masculinity in muscle man action cinema from Tarzan and Hercules to Conan and Rambo analyses the stifling role of white women in end of empire fictions like Jewel in the Crown and traces the associations of whiteness with death in Falling Down horror movies and cult dystopian films such as Blade Runner and the Aliens trilogy This twentieth anniversary edition includes a new introductory chapter by Maxime Cervulle entitled Looking into the light Whiteness racism and regimes of representation This new introduction illuminates how Dyer has made a major contribution to the study of contemporary regimes of representation by unveiling the cultural mechanisms that have formed and reinforced white hegemony mechanisms under which white people have come to represent what is ordinary neutral even universal
