Moth And Rust And Other Stories:

A Bird of Passage, and Other Stories Beatrice Harraden, 2020-03-16 In A Bird of Passage and Other Stories Beatrice Harraden weaves a tapestry of human emotions and experiences through a series of poignant narratives. The collection showcases her signature literary style characterized by rich descriptive language and deep psychological insight into her characters' lives. Set during a period of social change in the early 20th century, Harraden explores themes of migration, identity, and the complexities of love, reflecting the broader literary movements of realism and modernism that marked her time. Each story serves as a reflection of both personal and societal struggles, inviting readers to ponder their own journeys. Beatrice Harraden was a prominent figure in the literary landscape of her era, associated with the suffragist movement and the exploration of women's rights. Her keen observations of social dynamics and personal relationships are infused with her own experiences as a woman writer navigating a male-dominated field. This background imbues her work with authenticity and urgency as she seeks to illuminate the lives of those often overlooked in mainstream narratives. Readers seeking a profound exploration of the human condition will find Harraden's collection to be a compelling and rewarding experience. Her deft storytelling and empathy for her characters create an intimate connection that resonates deeply, making this book a significant addition to both historical and contemporary collections of short fiction. The Moon Moth and Other Stories

Jack Vance, The Mermaid of Druid Lake, and Other Stories Charles Weathers Bump, 2019-12-04 In The Mermaid of Druid Lake and Other Stories Charles Weathers Bump presents a compelling collection of tales that intertwine the elements of folklore, nature, and human emotion, set against the backdrop of early 20th-century America. Each story is meticulously crafted, employing a lyrical prose style that resonates with the traditions of regional storytelling while echoing the broader literary movements of realism and romanticism. Bump deftly balances whimsical narrative with perceptive social commentary, drawing the reader into a world where the magical and the mundane coexist, ultimately revealing the deeper truths of the human experience. Charles Weathers Bump was an ardent observer of the natural world and a fervent supporter of environmental conservation. His experiences growing up near the serene Druid Lake likely informed his enchantment with the themes of nature and folklore that permeate his work. Bump's deep respect for the landscape and its mythology reflects a broader cultural awareness of the importance of preserving the stories that resonate within local communities, enriching both individual and collective identities. I highly recommend The Mermaid of Druid Lake and Other Stories to readers seeking not only an enchanting journey through myth and memory but also insights into the intricate relationship between humanity and its environment. Bump's stories awaken a sense of wonder that invites reflection on our own narratives, making this collection a timeless addition to the literary canon. Goodbye My Love and Other Stories Marcus A. Stockton, 2017-11-16 There are two ways that a person can walk in this life. You can either walk into your blessing or walk into your curse. How can you do that? You can do that by doing things that are natural for you to do. Success at anything is not by chance or by luck. It is seeing things you have already been doing brought to fruition Therefore successful people are not surprised by their success They actually knew it would happen before it happened The blessing is the reward for a life of integrity and commitment to achieving goals and setting standards What is the curse It is all the negatives that we curse our lives with the negative friends the negative conversations the negative situations An unsuccessful person who continues to put himself or herself in those situations in those conversations and around those people will bring a curse to their lives that they will never be able to shake I am grateful for the friends and the relationships that I have been blessed with in my life They have helped me to overcome all the obstacles of life And that is what any man needs incarcerated or freepeople who believe in him when no one else in the world does

Finding List of English Prose Fiction in the Chicago Public Library ,1911 The Amber Gods, and Other Stories Harriet Elizabeth Prescott Spofford,1989 A widely held vision of nineteenth century American women is of lives lived in naive domestic peace the girls of Little Women making do until father comes home from the war Nothing could be less true of Harriet Prescott Spofford s stories In fact her editor at the Atlantic Monthly at first refused to believe that an unworldly woman from New England had written them Her style though ornate by our 20th century standards adds to its atmosphere like heavy Baroque furniture in a large and creepy house The title story presents a self centered and captivating woman who ruthlessly steals her orphan cousin s lover In Circumstance a pioneer woman returning home through the woods at night is caught by a panther her husband who has come to save her can only watch from the ground as she sings for her life pinned in a tree A train engineer hallucinates again and again that he is running over his wife And Mrs Craven who s a bit weak in the head mindlessly repeats Three men went down cellar and only two came up These stories combine elements of the best ghost stories timing detail and character with just enough chill to make you think twice about turning out your lights at night

In a Cellar and other Stories Harriet Prescott Spofford,2015-04-24 Harriet Prescott Spofford was famous during her lifetime for her pioneering female characters and intense fantastical gothic style This is a collection of her finest short stories including In a Cellar the story which first brought her fame in America a story which when handed to the editor of a popular journal was almost turned down as the editor refused to believe Spofford had written it We are republishing these stories together with a new introductory biography of the author The Ray of Displacement and other stories Harriet Prescott Spofford,2022-07-21 The Ray of Displacement and other Stories is an early twentieth century science fiction inspired by H G Wells The Invisible Man The protagonist of the story a scientist in physics develops a method to transform matter into energy and starts a row of incredible adventures Recent Additions by Classes ,1898 The Publishers Weekly ,1903 The Kansas City Public Library Quarterly Kansas City Public Library (Kansas City, Mo.),1904 The Public Library Quarterly ,1902 The Churchman ,1902
