Mother Love Mother Hate Breaking Dependent Love Patterns In Family Relationships:

Mothers Who Love Too Much Anne F. Grizzle, Anne F Grizzle, Lmsw-Acp, 1991

Lives Together/Worlds Apart

Suzanna Danuta Walters, 2023-11-15 In the 1940s film Now Voyager Bette Davis plays a daughter struggling against her mother's stifling repression. Nearly fifty years later in the Hollywood saga Postcards from the Edge Shirley MacLaine as a neglectful and bossy mother inflicts untold psychological pain on her daughter played by Meryl Streep. These dramas of conflict and the ambivalent struggle for separation have been central to popular images of mothers and daughters in the last half century in the U.S. Walters boldly challenges these dichotomies and proposes an innovative and multilayered understanding of the cultural construction of the mother-daughter relationship. In a discussion of popular media ranging from themes of maternal martyrdom to maternal malevolence, Walters shows that since World War II mainstream culture has generally represented the mother-daughter relationship as one of never-ending conflict and thus promoted an ideology of separation as necessary to the daughter's emancipation and maturity. This ideological move is placed in a social context of the anti-woman backlash of the early post-war period and the renewed anti-feminism of the Reagan and Bush years. Walters uses exceptions to mainstream imagery: films such as A Tree Grows in Brooklyn, television shows like Maude, novels like The Joy Luck Club to offer evidence of alternative traditions and paradigms. Timely and vividly argued, Lives Together Worlds Apart makes a brilliant contribution to discussions of popular culture and feminism. In the 1940s film Now Voyager Bette Davis plays a daughter struggling against her mother's stifling repression. Nearly fifty years later in the Hollywood saga Postcards from the Edge Shirley MacLaine as a neglectful and bossy mother in Family Scripts Joan D. Atwood, 1996. This book is appropriate as a text for postgraduate marriage and family counselor therapist training and also as a professional development resource for practicing marriage and family counselors. The first three chapters of this book introduce the notions of social construction, assumptions, and social scripting theory. The remaining chapters then apply the theory of scripting to common clinical family situations seen in therapy such as death and grief in the family, premarital child-bearing, adolescence, couples therapy, and chemical dependence in the family. Myths of Motherhood Sherry Thurer, 1995-05-01. This groundbreaking and irreverent history of motherhood is worth a hundred advice books for any mother who's ever been made to feel guilty or frazzled by society's impossible expectations. Analyzing data from the psychoanalyst's couch to the hidden history of wet nursing, psychologist Shari L. Thurer wends her way from the Stone Age to the age of Hillary Rodham Clinton, painting a vivid, often frightening picture of life for mothers and children in a time when their roles were constructed by men. Along the way, she debunks myth after myth, exposing the not-so-golden ages of Classical Greece and the Italian Renaissance and revealing the pervasive ideal of Dr. Spock's selfless stay-at-home mother as the historical aberration it actually was. A work of impassioned scholarship and astonishing range, The Myths of Motherhood does nothing less than recast our conception of good mothering. Mothers and Mothering Penelope Dixon, 1991 Mother Puzzles Mickey

Pearlman,1989-12-11 Despite extraordinary attention within the past five years by novelists playwrights and critics the subject of mothers and daughters and motherhood and daughterhood has remained complicated and compelling Mother Puzzles is a unique collection that examines how women who write have dealt with those relationships Pearlman notes in her introduction that missing mothers mothers who are physically present but emotionally absent are often found in works by women The question this collection addresses is why the mother as currently portrayed in American literature by women has moved from sainted marginality as icon to vicious caricature as destroyer to the puzzling figure that emerges here and why these works are often also about incest and sexual abuse Among the authors studied are Sue Miller Tillie Olsen Marilyn French Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Marsha Norman and Susan Fromberg Schaeffer Feminist literary psychological analyses of Housekeeping Lovingkindness Fierce Attachments Men and Angels night Mother The Snow Queen and The Good Mother are included These essays will interest scholars in American literature readers of contemporary fiction and those interested in Women s Studies
