Mother Margaret Mary Healy-Murphy Mary Immaculata Turley, 1969      Sisters of the Holy Spirit and Mary Immaculate, The Cecilia Gutierrez Venable and the Sisters of the Holy Spirit and Mary Immaculate, 2018 For 125 years the Sisters of the Holy Spirit and Mary Immaculate served the poor and in particular people of color They are the first order of sisters founded in Texas Their foundress Margaret Mary Healy Murphy built the first Catholic African American school and church in San Antonio the second in the state of Texas The sisters carried their mission and work beyond the Lone Star State's borders and included most of the South and a few metropolitan areas of the North They crossed the Rio Grande and had several missions in Mexico and traversed a new continent when they opened a learning center in Zambia The sisters were primarily known as educators and in later years worked in religious education and pastoral ministry They have also operated orphanages and nursing homes and served in hospitals homeless shelters incarceration facilities and immigration residences The school they built over 100 years ago now known as the Healy Murphy Center serves the community as an alternative high school and the sisters still teach there      Across God's Frontiers Anne M. Butler, 2012 Roman Catholic sisters first traveled to the American West as providers of social services education and medical assistance In Across God's Frontiers Anne M Butler traces the ways in which sisters challenged and reconfigured contemporary ideas      African Americans and Race Relations in San Antonio, Texas, 1867-1937 Kenneth Mason, 1998 This is a study of how paternal race relations in San Antonio contributed to the rise of accommodation minded African American leaders whose successful manipulation of the political and ethnic divisions provided goods services and sustained voting rights during a period when African Americans throughout the South had lost such privileges The unique demography of Mexican German Anglo and African Americans a service based economy of hotels restaurants and saloons and campaigns by white civic leaders to make San Antonio the premier commercial and vacation center of the Southwest nurtured a political machine that intended to keep blacks in their place This resulted in an assortment of Jim Crow laws restrictive employment opportunities and segregated schools parks and municipal services albeit without mob lynching and racial violence This paternal brand of racism resulted in the rise of one of the most powerful black political bosses of his time Charles Bellinger Challenges from conservative white reformers and disgruntled black civil rights advocates failed to dislodge the hold Bellinger's machine had on the black community and the city until the Great Depression By examining employment education politics and socio cultural activities that contributed to the city's unique race relations the study takes a hard look at whether separate but equal ever become a reality in San Antonio      A Little Good Sister St. John Begnaud, 2012-01-09 The arrival of three Sisters of St Mary of Namur at the railroad station of Waco Texas on September 23 1873 brought remarkable change to the state of education in the center and north of the state Hoping to do a little good by living their faith and establishing Catholic schools Mother Emilie Sister Mary Angela and Sister Stanislaus were somewhat appalled to learn that Waco boasted only twenty five Catholic families and among them were only six school age children But Protestants too appreciated the education that was offered Other sisters came and in less than forty years Waco Corsicana Ennis Denison Sherman Wichita Falls Fort Worth and Dallas boasted flourishing Catholic establishments Boarding schools offered girls in rural areas as well as towns an opportunity for education Who were those sisters Where did they come from what did they find and why did they stay That story sometimes humorous sometimes tragic always challenging is the subject of this book      The Rock from Which You Were Hewn Patrick Kenny, John

Hogan, 2024-11-11 This book presents brief inspiring biographies of over 40 Irish men and women whose causes for canonization are in progress along with others who enjoy a strong reputation for sanctity Written in response to Pope Benedict XVI's call to the Irish to renew the Church in Ireland by drawing on the legacy of their ancestors it details the heroic lives of twentieth century saintly models as well as a few older ones to encourage contemporary Catholics to seek holiness Featuring chapters by various contributors including the postulants of some of the causes the book offers moving insights into its subjects and the times and places in which they lived Some lived and died in Ireland while some were missionaries in other countries Some were priests or consecrated religious others were devout and dedicated laypeople Some died as martyrs others were distinguished by lives of humble service What unites them all is their profound love for Christ and his Church This is a timely important work given the decline of Christianity in Western society and the need for the Church to embrace a process of spiritual renewal and evangelization While it deals with Irish models it is a work for the universal Church since the saints have relevance for all of us regardless of where they are from Those whose inspiring stories are told include Monsignor Hugh O'Flaherty Fr Willie Doyle S J Father Edward Flanagan Frank Duff Sister Clare Crockett Venerable Patrick Peyton Venerable Matt Talbot Venerable Edel Quinn Blessed John Sullivan Blessed Columba Marmion and many more      The Harlem Renaissance in the American West Cary D Wintz, Bruce Glasrud, 2012-05-22 The Harlem

Renaissance an exciting period in the social and cultural history of the US has over the past few decades re established itself as a watershed moment in African American history However many of the African American communities outside the urban center of Harlem that participated in the Harlem Renaissance between 1914 and 1940 have been overlooked and neglected as locations of scholarship and research Harlem Renaissance in the West The New Negro's Western Experience will change the way students and scholars of the Harlem Renaissance view the efforts of artists musicians playwrights club owners and various other players in African American communities all over the American West to participate fully in the cultural renaissance that took hold during that time      The journal of Texas Catholic history and culture , 1990

Encyclopedia of Women in the American West Gordon Morris Bakken, Brenda Farrington, 2003-06-26 American women have followed their manifest destiny since the 1800's moving West to homestead found businesses author novels and write poetry practice medicine and law preach and perform missionary work become educators artists judges civil rights activists and many other important roles spurred on by their strength spirit and determination      The African American
