The Mother's Magazine and Family Circle Abigail Goodrich Whittelsey, Darius Mead, Elizabeth Sewell, Maria C. Tracy, 1835 Status of Bad Memories Jonathan Butoto, 2016-03-19 His book Status of Bad Memories was written just after the tragedy that happened in Democratic Republic of Congo in 1996 until 2004 He was shocked at the way he and other people from his tribe were marginalized and was horrified that they were being killed by other tribes from Congo and Interahamwe extremist groups from the neighboring country of Rwanda This book delivers a true account of what happened during the civil war in Congo Many people died and Gabby survived the tragedy With this book he is thanking Americans and all people who contributed to the protection of his life and family from the hands of killers He says that there is something inside his heart The tragedy was caused by the war that happened in DRC During that time tears were everywhere in the country People have been hunted as if they were wild animals He saw this tragedy with his two eyes He could stand in a hidden place to see what was happening Women and children were also killed His brothers and sisters became homeless They are now wandering everywhere in the world Killing a person was no longer a sin but a game to some tribes in Congo This book is a mediator a bridge to make Congo a holy place to live in and remind new generation that Congo deserves development instead of having killings quarrels and instability Gai Institutiones Gaius, 1925 The Mother's Promise Sally Hepworth, 2017-02-21 A poignant and breathtaking novel from the author of The Things We Keep and The Secrets of Midwives All their lives Alice Stanhope and her daughter Zoe have been a family of two living quietly in Northern California Zoe has always struggled with crippling social anxiety and her mother has been her constant and fierce protector With no family to speak of and the identity of Zoe's father shrouded in mystery their team of two works until it doesn't Until Alice gets sick and needs to fight for her life Desperate to find stability for Zoe Alice reaches out to two women who are practically strangers but who are her only hope Kate a nurse and Sonja a social worker As the four of them come together a chain of events is set into motion and all four of them must confront their sharpest fears and secrets secrets about abandonment abuse estrangement and the deepest longing for family Imbued with heart and humor in even the most dismal moments The Mother's Promise is an unforgettable novel about the unbreakable bonds between mothers and daughters and the new ways in which families are forged Sally Hepworth novels are sure to appeal to fans of Jojo Moyes Jodi Picoult and Lisa Genova book clubs will be lining up Library Journal starred review Munsey's Magazine, 1897 Good Housekeeping, 1920 Migrant and Tourist Encounters Andrea Easley Morris, 2020-05-13 Migrant and Tourist Encounters The Ethics of Im mobility in 21st Century Dominican and Cuban Cultures analyzes the effects of clashing flows of voluntary and involuntary travelers to and from these countries due to an increase in migration and tourism during the last three decades I compare the ways in which literary works and films reflect on and critique the power relations and ethics of im mobility and encounter both on the islands and in destinations abroad The works draw attention to the interconnectedness of migration tourism and other forms of travel as well as immobility and portray growing local and global inequalities through characters disparate access to free voluntary movement I consider how the works respond to the question of the moral potential of encounters produced by im mobilities and the possibility of connection across differences I argue that Dominican and Cuban artists not only critique neo colonial paradigms of power and im mobility but envision and enact strategies for belonging and in some cases suggest a path toward de colonial cosmopolitanism
