Mother Journeys Feminists Write About Mothering:

Mother Journeys Maureen T. Reddy, Martha Roth, Amy Sheldon, 1994 Mother Journeys Feminists Write About Mothering is a compelling collection of essays stories poems and artwork responding to this request investigating with clarity humor courage and sometimes pain the dual issues of feminism and motherhood Feminist Mothering Andrea

O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women's empowerment and social change The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism paid employment nonsexist childrearing practices and non child centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children's lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women men and families Narratives of Mothering Gill Rye, 2009 Mothers have been both idealized and demonized in Western cultures

With Simone de Beauvoir's feminist analysis of motherhood in The Second Sex as her point of departure Rye Germanic and Romance studies U of London studies how French autobiographical and fictional narratives of mothering since 1990 differ from those told about them In the context of societal changes she explores themes including loss and trauma related to childbirth literally and figuratively ambivalence and guilt power and powerlessness and lesbian and single parenting in the works of Christine Angot Genevieve Brisac Marie Darrieussecq Camille Laurens Leila Marouane and Marie Ndiaye among others Feminist Parenting: Perspectives from Africa and Beyond Rama Salla Dieng, Andrea O'Reilly, 2020-04-01 Feminist Parenting Perspectives from Africa and Beyond asks and considers What is feminist parenting Is it something for all parents What does it mean to be a feminist parent in practice The collection aims to fill a gap on feminist parenting in the existing literature by bringing timely post Western perspectives More specifically the anthology's main contribution is its explicit focus on feminist parenting from the margins to the global periphery from Africa and its diaspora from the Global South to Europe and America The 27 parents from diverse backgrounds walks of life and countries gathered in this anthology share powerful responses to the above questions by narrating their experiences of some of the challenges dilemmas promises and compromises of parenting with a feminist perspective The volume is one of the first collections published with first person essays describing very touching beautiful and sometimes painful stories of what it means and more importantly what it costs to become a feminist parent with an intersectional approach In doing so the authors of this book aim at re claiming parenting as a necessarily political terrain for subversion radical transformation and resistance to patriarchal oppression and sexism

Mothers, Mothering and Motherhood Across Cultural Differences - A Reader Andrea O'Reilly, 2014-05-01 Mothers Mothering and Motherhood across Cultural Differences the first ever Reader on the subject matter examines the meaning and practice of mothering motherhood from a multitude of maternal perspectives The Reader includes 22 chapters on the following maternal identities Aboriginal Adoptive At Home Birth Black Disabled East Asian Feminist Immigrant Refugee Latina Chicana Poor Low Income Migrant Non Residential Older Queer Rural Single South Asian Stepmothers Working Young Mothers and Mothers of Adult Children Each chapter provides background and context examines the challenges and possibilities of mothering motherhood for each group of mothers and considers directions for future research The first anthology to provide a comprehensive examination of mothers mothering motherhood across diverse cultural locations and subject positions the book is essential reading for maternal scholars and activists and serves as an ideal course text for a wide range of courses in Motherhood Studies

Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice

From Motherhood to Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-10-14 Explores how Rich's work has influenced feminist scholarship on motherhood

Maternal Theory Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-07-08 Theory on mothers mothering and motherhood has emerged as a distinct body of knowledge within Motherhood Studies and Feminist Theory more generally This collection The Second Edition of Maternal Theory Essential Readings introduces readers to this rich and diverse tradition of maternal theory Composed of 60 chapters the 2nd edition includes two sections the first with the classic texts by Adrienne Rich Nancy Chodorow Sara Ruddick Alice Walker Barbara Katz Rothman bell hooks Sharon Hays Patricia Hill Collins Audre Lorde Daphne de Marneffe Judith Warner Patrice diQinizio Susan Maushart and many more The second section includes thirty new chapters on vital and new topics including Trans Parenting Non Binary Parenting Queer Mothering Matricentric Feminism Normative Motherhood Maternal Subjectivity Maternal Narratology Maternal Ambivalence Maternal Regret Monstrous Mothers The Migrant Maternal Reproductive Justice Feminist Mothering Feminist Fathering Indigenous Mothering The Digital Maternal The Opt Out Revolution Black Motherhoods Motherlines The Motherhood Memoir Pandemic Mothering and many more Maternal Theory is essential reading for anyone interested in motherhood as experience ideology and identity

Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Matricentric Feminism Andrea O'Reilly,2016-10-01 The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face social economic political cultural psychological and so forth are specific to women s role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice The chapter on maternal theory examines the central theoretical concepts of maternal scholarship while the chapter on activism considers the twenty first century motherhood movement Feminist mothering is likewise examined as the specific practice of matricentric feminism and this chapter discusses various theories and strategies on and for maternal empowerment Matricentric feminism is also examined in relation to the larger field of academic feminism here O Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed Abortion in Popular Culture Brenda Boudreau,Kelli Maloy,2023-04-04 Abortion in Popular Culture A Call to Action brings together scholars who examine depictions of abortion in film television literature and social media By examining texts ranging from classic television series such as Maude and Roseanne and recent films such as Never Rarely Sometimes Always and Unpregnant to dystopian novels and social media campaigns the essays analyze narrative styles rhetorical strategies and cinematic techniques all of which shape cultural attitudes toward abortion They also analyze cultural shifts including the willingness or reluctance of networks cable channels and filmmakers to acknowledge changing trends in reproductive health such as medication abortion and the role that abortion plays in family planning As a whole however the essays argue that popular culture can play a significant role in destigmatizing abortion by including a wider range of narratives and doing so with nuance and empathy With reproductive rights under attack in the United States each essay is a call to action for writers producers directors showrunners authors and musicians to use their platforms to tell more positive and accurate stories about abortion

Blessed Events Pamela E. Klassen, 2001-10-07 Blessed Events explores how women who give birth at home use religion to make sense of their births and in turn draw on their birthing experiences to bring meaning to their lives and families Pamela Klassen introduces a surprisingly diverse group of women in their own words while also setting their birth stories within wider social political and economic contexts In doing so she emerges with a study that disrupts conventional views of both childbirth and religion by blurring assumed divisions between conservative and feminist women and by taking childbirth seriously as a religious act Most American women who have a choice give birth in a hospital and request pain medication Yet enough women choose and advocate unmedicated home birth and do so for carefully articulated reasons social resistance among them to constitute a movement Klassen investigates why women whose religious affiliations range from Old Order Amish to Reform Judaism to goddess centered spirituality defy majority opinion the medical establishment and sometimes the law to have their babies at home In considering their interpretations including their critiques of the dominant medical model of childbirth and their views on labor pain she examines the kinds of agency afforded to or denied women as they derive religious meanings from childbirth Throughout she identifies tensions and affinities between feminist and traditionalist appraisals of the symbolic meaning of birth and the power of women What does home birth a woman centered movement working to return birth to women s control mean in practice for women s gender and religious identities Is this supreme valuing of procreation and motherhood constraining or does it open up new realms of cultural and social power for women By asking these questions while remaining cognizant of religion s significance Blessed Events challenges both feminist and traditionalist accounts of childbearing while broadening our understanding of how religion is lived in contemporary America

Race, Sex, and Gender in Contemporary Women's Theatre Mary F Brewer, 1999-01-01 Focusing on dramatic works by contemporary British and American playwrights in conjunction with feminist political and theoretical texts this book discusses feminist constructions of the category Woman

Mothers and Children Susan E. Chase, Mary Frances Rogers, 2001 Motherhood is a highly personal array of experiences with a uniquely public dimension preoccupying policymakers advice givers health care providers religious leaders child care workers educators and total strangers who feel entitled to judge mothers they see with their children in the neighborhood or on the TV news Chase U of Tulsa and Rogers U of West Florida approach motherhood and mothering as feminist sociologists focusing on questions such as how ideas about motherhood are shaped by social and historical conditions how ideas about motherhood change over time and across social contexts who has the power to make their definitions of motherhood stick and what diverse groups of mothers themselves think
