Mother Lodes Children:

Haunted Children Arthur F. Roemmelt, 1998-08-27 Relating stories of his years as a child psychiatrist the author argues that what essentially is troubling many children is better confronted in therapy rather than treated with medications

Mother Lode Cade McQueen, 2012-02 His name was Daniel Alexander Jacobi but his friends just called him Jac He was the quintessential underachiever a likeable ne'er-do-well who just couldn't seem to get his life together After a life time of financial mismanagement he'd wound broke and living pay cheque to pay cheque on a salary that never seemed to stretch far enough a situation he found increasingly frustrating but one he couldn't find his way out of until one day on a back road everything changed dramatically With 40 million in 100 00 bills literally dropped in front of him and the mob and the police searching for him he fought desperately to hide the money Fear of having been seen by someone gripped his heart like an icy hand as he struggled to try to come to grips with his new found wealth This is the story of an unremarkable individual suddenly thrust into a terrifying situation which forced him to draw on a hidden reserve of courage and resolve in order to protect those he loved and the Mother Lode Unwilling to defend himself he discovered a will to kill if necessary to protect the money and the future of his loved ones

Mother Lode Gretchen Staebler, 2025-07-30 makes you feel as though a kindred soul is speaking to you Readers Favorite At the age of sixty Gretchen Staebler promises to spend one year in her childhood home caring for her stubbornly independent ninety six year old mother sort of a middle aged gap year Then her mother will move to assisted living and she will return to her own independent life It doesn't go as planned Rather than a retrospective this mother daughter story unfolds in real time with gripping honesty bringing the reader along with the narrator through the struggle doubts and complexities of caregiving and daughterhood and the beacons of light Penetrating the fog of her mother's advancing dementia and myriad health issues with humor frustration and compassion and wine Staebler slowly comes to accept and respect the mother she got if not the one she wished for In the process she manifests non negotiable self care and learns more than she wants to know about aging cognitive loss and the healthcare system Any reader who is looking for a road map in caring for a family member has ever had a mother or is looking aging in the eye will find company on the journey in this candid multi award winning memoir

Mother Lode Susan Addison, 2001 A teenage boy is dying of cancer and his mother cannot save him But Susan Addison has a strong heart and a gift for words and the stories she tells her son Charlie sustain them both through his long illness These are stories of home of Charlie's young life Before Tumour of family cakes and the rich housekeeping heritage passed down the generations They provide a comforting context and the relief of humour for the emotionally wrenching stories of life After Tumour For these are also stories of home deaths In a decade of loss Susan's parents and parents in law also die but natural deaths at the end of fruitful lives are easier to bear In writing of Charlie and his grandparents Susan Addison draws on the rich mother lode of our common human experience of love loss and grief Her inspiring stories help us view death as an acceptable part of living where memories and pain are shared and
