Local Communities and the Israeli Polity Efraim Ben-Zadok, 2012-02-01 This book represents the first systematic effort to analyze the role of local communities and regions in Israel's national politics. Traditionally portrayed as either elitist and highly centralized or as pluralistic with very active interest groups, Israeli politics have seldom accounted for local and regional forces. The authors demonstrate the growing importance of these communities in the politics of the country. Their analyses are based on the concept of spatial sector and eight sectors are covered: The West Bank and Gaza Strip, Arabs, Israeli Arabs, development towns, renewal neighborhoods, religious neighborhoods, Gush Emunim settlements, kibbutzim and moshavim, and Jerusalem.

Constitutionalism Daniel Judah Elazar, 1990. In Israel today there is increasingly vigorous support for the framing of a constitution. At the same time there is almost no recognition that in forty years Israel has acquired an almost complete set of basic laws that form a constitution. The aims of this volume are threefold: to inform the Israeli public and the world as to what exists and consider what still is needed in the way of a constitution to enter constitutionalism firmly on the Israeli public agenda and to learn from the American experience. The author shows that Israel's constitution is more than anything else a modern adaptation of an ancient constitution.

Contents: Israel and Models of Modern Constitutionalism; The Politics of Constitution Making in the United States and Israel; Issues of Constitutional Design: Civil Rights and Liberties; Issues of Constitutional Design: Interjurisdictional Relations; The State of Constitutionalism in the United States and Israel; Where Do We Go from Here. R. Co. published with the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs.

Checkbook Zionism Eric Fleisch, 2024-01-12. American Jews donate approximately 2.5 billion to Israel each year. Behind all that money and influence lies a power sharing dynamic that has left an indelible mark on the relationship between Israeli and American Jews and on the direction of Israeli society to this day. Checkbook Zionism investigates how both parties have managed their interests, emotions, and attitudes about the important yet at times tense collaboration between them. By delving into the history of American Jews' philanthropic giving to Israel, Eric Fleisch assesses the core nature of power sharing between both sides of the Jewish diaspora to the United States through in-depth contemporary case studies of the relationship between sixteen non-governmental organizations and their American Jewish donors. Field observation, document analysis, and interviews with leaders, activists, and select donors alike serve a critical role here as Eric Fleisch assesses whether these contemporary philanthropic associations repeat classic dynamics of power sharing or whether they represent a marked departure from the Checkbook Zionism of old. The result is a new paradigm for evaluating power sharing that can be applied to future considerations of development in the Israel-Diaspora relationship.
