Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge: Son of Man-Tremellius Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1911 A Master Class on Being Human Anthony Pinn, Brad Braxton, 2023-07-25 A conversation between 2 eminent Black thinkers on how to work together to make the world a better place despite deep religious differences Brad Braxton and Anthony Pinn represent two traditions Christianity and Secular Humanism respectively that have for centuries existed in bitter opposition For too long people with different worldviews have disparaged and harmed one another Instead of fighting each other Braxton and Pinn talk with listen to and learn from one another Their wide ranging conversation demonstrates the possibility of fruitful exchange that accounts for rather than masks their differences Written amid the Covid 19 pandemic threats to our democracy and national protests for racial justice A Master Class on Being Human shows us that constructive dialogue can help us pursue the common good without sacrificing our distinctive identities In conversations that are frank personal and deeply informed by scholarship Braxton and

Pinn discuss topics that are urgent and immediate such as the ongoing violence against Black communities the rise of religiously unaffiliated communities the Black Lives Matter movement They also ponder those broader philosophical and theological questions that inform our politics and sense of what it means to be human the meaning of religion the stubborn dilemma of moral evil the power and problems of hope Braxton and Pinn invite us to join them in a master class as they strive to create a world where differences are not tolerated but instead celebrated In that kind of courageous classroom all can learn how to be better people who in turn transform the world into a better place Weekly World News ,2000-01-04
