2000 Pushcart Prize Xxiv Bill Henderson, 1999-11-23 Best of the small presses The Quotable Moose Wesley McNair, 1994 The best of Maine's contemporary authors celebrate their state in poetry fiction and essays that comprise a lively sampler as varied as the state that inspired it A treasury of works many previously unpublished it includes Philip Booth Franklin Burroughs Carolyn Chute Robert Creeley Amy Clampitt George Garrett Susan Kenney Cathie Pelletier and 32 others

Trouble Lights William Olsen, 2002 Traveling from the rural Midwest and Chicago his mythic childhood city to the outposts of Cornwall and far off Guangzhou William Olsen searches for the miracle of wholeness in the small details An urgency inhabits his poems as they lament and protest a pandemic disrespect for all things natural and the replacement of such with material progress Olsen seeks to make a truly substantial inquiry into human existence which leads him to test the adequacy of language Filling his verses with a dazzling language that challenges transports questions and intoxicates he thus creates a genuine surrealism His meditations on contemporary life are bleak but fiercely truthful providing that paradox of literature the exhilaration of feeling even when reading of the tragic It is Olsen's distinct awe for our universe that offers hope for retrieving all that is being lost

Bright Existence Brenda Hillman, 2012-01-01 A celebrated poet's vision of our dynamic universe The poems in Brenda Hillman's new collection a companion volume to her recent Death Treatises offer a dynamic vision of a universe founded on the tensions between light and dark existence and non existence male and female spirit and matter Informed in part by Gnostic concepts of the separate soul in search of its divine origins spirit held by matter This dualistic vision is cast in contemporary terms and seeks resolution of these tensions through acceptance

Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet's major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet's critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Landscape at the End of the Century: Poems Stephen Dunn, 1992-06-17 Here is the mature work of a poet who has always managed to delight but who now demands something more of us He asks us to enter the twenty first century with open eyes attentive to the past eager for the future naming what we love Judith Kitchen Georgia Review

Trying Conclusions: New and Selected Poems, 1961 - 1991 Howard

Nemerov, 2023-01-18 Shot through with his trademark humour Trying Conclusions is the fourteenth collection of poems from the lauded writer Containing twenty three poems the topics vary wildly from short verses on waiting rooms and fast cars to longer musings on his family war and the US Congress Nemerov's sense of the satirical is best seen in shorter offerings where he takes a literary look at life from the other end of the telescope A superb introduction to the works of one of the 20th Century's most subversive scribes Howard Nemerov 1920-1991 was an American novelist and poet who won the Pulitzer Prize in 1978 His novels are characterised by the use of self deprecating wit and an ongoing sense of irony While his books tended to satirise 20th Century American life his poems often focussed on the beauty and innocence of nature In addition Nemerov also worked as a scriptwriter most notably on the film Tall Story starring Anthony Perkins and Jane Fonda
