(Block 4.4) Bob Margolis, Open University. Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman, 2009 In 2007 08 the Parliamentary Ombudsman received 7 341 complaints about government departments and a range of other public bodies Of these 2 574 were about the Department for Work and Pensions DWP This is not surprising given the size and nature of DWP s business serving as they do over 20 million customers at any one time It is understandable even inevitable that mistakes will happen What is important is how DWP dealt with the complaints arising from mistakes Many but by no means all of the complaints received could have been resolved much sooner and by DWP themselves if the complaint handling had been more customer focused This report contains an anonymised digest of selected cases highlighting poor information delays poor record keeping poor communication Local resolution of complains should be the most efficient way to secure an appropriate outcome It is hoped the report will encourage DWP to seek ways to improve the service they provide to citizens
