Putting Gender On The Agenda:

Putting Gender on the Agenda Evelyn Loh, Caroline Lambert, 2001 Putting Gender on the Agenda Ann Clark, 1997-12-01 Putting Gender on the Agenda of a Development Organization Delores McLaughlin, 1997 Putting Gender Issues on the Policy Agenda, 1995 Gender, Race, and Power Joyce P. Kaufman, Kristen P. Williams, 2024-10-02

Kaufman and Williams present critical issues in international relations through an intersectional approach that examines race gender class ethnicity and power to arrive at better explanations for such core IR issues as war and peace security human rights development and international political economy and the global environment Their approach builds on early calls amongst feminist IR theorists imploring Where are the women It is only fairly recently that students of IR have broadened the approach to the field to incorporate the dimensions of race ethnicity and class as well as gender Kaufman and Williams help guide readers exploring questions like How does gender matter for understanding war and peace How does race matter Where are the men What is intersectionality in IR How does an intersectional approach change or broaden our understanding of international relations

Gender, Crime and Criminal Justice Sandra Walklate,2013-01-11 This book provides a lucid and highly acclaimed introduction to gender issues in crime and criminal justice central to any understanding of crime and criminal justice policy and practice This second edition has been updated to take full account of recent developments particularly in the areas of policing crime prevention restorative justice and legislation relating to sexual offences and the nature and impact of crime on women in particular the Sexual Offences Act 2003 Gender Crime and Criminal Justice is divided into three main sections The first considers different ways of theorising about gender and the relative impact of this on thinking about crime and criminal victimisation the second considers some of the evidence in relation to people s gendered experiences of crime and criminal victimisation the third considers how those working within the criminal justice system and the policies that are put in place work to sustain or change those experiences of crime and criminal victimisation in relation to gender Making Gender Equality Happen Rosalind Cavaghan,2017-05-25 In theory the EU s Gender Mainstreaming policy should mark it out as a trail blazer in gender equality but gender equality activists in Europe confront a knotty problem most civil servants and policy makers can t understand how to mainstream gender Making Gender Equality Happen argues that we should take this problem seriously In this book Cavaghan uncovers the social processes that make gender appear irrelevant to so many policy makers using a new method gender knowledge contestation analysis Building on this new perspective Cavaghan identifies barriers to effective gender mainstreaming mechanisms of resistance to gender mainstreaming and the steps towards positive change which gender mainstreaming can yield even when results stop short of transformation These findings present fresh perspectives for policy makers and activists aiming to make gender equality happen Cavaghan s new method also opens fresh avenues in feminist EU studies which are particularly relevant in the wake of the financial crisis as the EU seems to be stepping away from its commitments to gender equality

The Lebanon Uprising of 2019 Jeffrey G. Karam, Rima Majed, 2022-09-22 In October 2019 hundreds of thousands took to the streets of Lebanon to protest austerity measures in what became known as the thawra These were the largest mass protests seen in the country s modern history The Lebanon Uprising of 2019 puts the revolution in its historical and regional context and also follows the huge transformations that have been unraveling in Lebanon ever since The book is a unique source of testimonies that brings to the fore the voices of those scholars activists researchers and journalists who took part in the protests or were closely involved in the unfolding events These accounts include stories about specific events and struggles views of the uprising from various regions of the country and reflections on topics such as the labor struggle disability the student movement foreign interventions the struggle for preserving environmental spaces the role of refugees and non Lebanese within the movement and women and queer participation The book situates the protests within the historical political economic social and environmental foundations of the Lebanese polity as well as in the broader context of a second wave of Arab uprisings and a global wave of upheavals in 2019 making this book a testament to the rich history of protests and activism in the country It features some primary documents including photos and other materials that were disseminated in the streets and over social media platforms making this book an important resource of first hand knowledge

Gender, Change and Identity Barbara Merrill, 2019-06-04 First published in 1999 this volume centres on a case study which looks at the experiences of non traditional adult women students in universities from the perspective of the actors The interaction of structure and agency and the significance of macro and micro levels in shaping the behaviour attitudes and experiences of women adult students are examined by drawing on three perspectives feminism Marxism and interactionism An underlying question is to what extent did studying change the way participants perceived themselves as women It relates life histories to their student career as individuals and collectively as subcultural groups It also breaks new ground by including a sample of male adult students in order to compare and clarify gender issues It also uses macro and micro sociological theories as a tool for understanding the experiences of women at university and the relationship between their public and private lives The book concludes that studying for a degree represented an active decision to take greater control to break free from gender and class restraints and to transform individual lives The study aims to clarify and reassert the radical individual traditions within sociology feminism and adult education Extraction/Exclusion Stephanie Postar, Negar Elodie Behzadi, Nina Nikola Doering, 2023-11-24 Extraction Exclusion draws and builds on scholarship from across the social sciences to show that natural resource extraction is predicated on exclusions This innovative work portrays how inclusionary language and practices paradoxically often result in further exclusions concealing unchanged systems of domination and dispossession and reproducing violent exploitative processes on the ground
