Putting Myself in the Picture Jo Spence, 1986      Cities and Photography Jane Tormey, 2013-01-17 Photographs display attitudes agency and vision in the way cities are documented and imagined Cities and Photography explores the relationship between people and the city visualized in photographs It provides a visually focused examination of the city and urbanism for a range of different disciplines across the social sciences and humanities photography and fine art This text offers different perspectives from which to view social political and cultural ideas about the city and urbanism through both verbal discussion and photographic representation It provides introductions to theoretical conceptions of the city that are useful to photographers addressing urban issues as well as discussing themes that have preoccupied photographers and informed cultural issues central to a discussion of city This text interprets the city as a spatial network that we inhabit on different conceptual psychological and physical levels and gives emphasis to how people operate within relate to and activate the city via construction habitation and disruption Cities and Photography aims to demonstrate the potential of photography as a contributor to commentary and analytical frameworks what does photography as a medium provide for a vision of city and what can photographs tell us about cities histories attitudes and ideas This introductory text is richly illustrated with case studies and over 50 photographs summarizing complex theory and analysis with application to specific examples Emphasis is given to international contemporary photographic projects to provide provide focus for the discussion of theoretical conceptions of the city through the analysis of photographic interpretation and commentary This text will be of great appeal to those interested in Photography Urban Studies and Human Geography      A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford, 2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada s settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and M tis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues

Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford s sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience     Technologies of the Self-Portrait Gabriella Giannachi,2022-07-29 This book demonstrates how artists have radically revisited the genre of the self portrait by using a range of technologies and media that mark different phases in what can be described as a history of self or selves production Gabriella Giannachi shows how artists constructed their presence subjectivity and personhood by using a range of technologies and media including mirrors photography sculpture video virtual reality and social media to produce an increasingly fluid multiple and social representation of their self This interdisciplinary book draws from art history performance studies visual culture new media theory philosophy computer science and neuroscience to offer a radical new reading of the genre     American Migrant Fictions Sonia Weiner,2018-07-17 In American Migrant Fictions Space Narrative Identity Sonia Weiner focuses on novels of five American migrant writers of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries who construct spatial paradigms within their narratives to explore questions of linguistic diversity identities and be longings By weaving visual techniques within their narratives photography comics cartography authors Aleksandar Hemon G B Tran Junot D az Boris Fishman and Vikram Chandra convey a surplus of perspectives and gesture towards alternative spaces spatial in between ness and transnational space     Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography in a Digital Age Del Loewenthal,2013-02-11 The digital age has brought about a world wide evolution of phototherapy and therapeutic photography This book provides both a foundation in phototherapy and therapeutic photography and describes the most recent developments Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography in a Digital Age is divided into three sections In the first an introduction and overviews from different perspectives in the second approaches and contexts including phototherapy re enactment phototherapy community phototherapy self portraiture family photography This is followed by a conclusion looking at the future of phototherapy and therapeutic photography in terms of theory practice and research The book is for anyone interested in the therapeutic use of photographs It will be of particular interest to psychological therapists and especially psychotherapists counsellors psychologists and art therapists as well as photographers and others wishing to explore further the use of photographs therapeutically within their existing practices     The Handbook of Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography Del Loewenthal,2023-07-10 This text introduces the concepts essential tenets and basic techniques of Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography Through the use of case studies and the author s own professional experience this book covers the practices together with their theories and research behind phototherapy and therapeutic photography providing a comprehensive range of major approaches Examples include Talking Pictures Therapy Reenactment Phototherapy the creation of therapeutic photo books stories and diaries and the therapeutic use of portraiture Chapters also explain how we can effectively use these techniques in a variety of contexts including private practice voluntary organisations schools prisons and management consultancy as useful adjuncts to primary practices as well as for self help

This handbook is for therapists photographers other professionals clients and activist clients      Image-based Research Jon Prosser,2005-08-12 Just what is a picture worth Qualitative research is dominated by language However researchers have recently shown a growing interest in adopting an image based approach This is the first volume dedicated to exploring this approach and will prove an invaluable sourcebook for researchers in the field The book covers a broad scope including theory and the research process and provides practical examples of how image based research is applied in the field It discusses use of images in child abuse investigation exploring children s drawings in health education cartoons the media and teachers

Photography and Collaboration Daniel Palmer,2020-09-14 Photography and Collaboration offers a fresh perspective on existing debates in art photography and on the act of photography in general Unlike conventional accounts that celebrate individual photographers and their personal visions this book investigates the idea that authorship in photography is often more complex and multiple than we imagine involving not only various forms of partnership between photographers but also an astonishing array of relationships with photographed subjects and viewers Thematic chapters explore the increasing prevalence of collaborative approaches to photography among a broad range of international artists from conceptual practices in the 1960s to the most recent digital manifestations Positioning contemporary work in a broader historical and theoretical context the book reveals that collaboration is an overlooked but essential dimension of the medium s development and potential      The Visual Is Political Na'ama Klorman-Eraqi,2019-07-19 This book examines the phenomenon of feminist photography as it unfolded in Britain during the 1970s and 1980s Klorman Eraqi offers a unique analysis of the intersection between feminism and photography and the period s social conflicts and theoretical debates and adds to the understanding of feminist countercultural practices produced in this moment and of their continuing relevance      Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography Ingham, Mark Bruce Nigel,Milic, Nela,Kantas, Vasileios,Andersdotter, Sara,Lowe, Paul,2023-02-17 Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century These links have often been described from each other s discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory Covering key topics such as identity trauma and remembrance this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals sociologists psychologists artists researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students      Photography Steve Edwards,2006-08-24 Photographs are an integral part of our daily lives from sensationalist images in tabloid papers and snapshots to art photograpy displayed in galleries and sold through international art markets In this thought provoking exploration of the subject Edwards combines a sense of the historical development of photography with an analysis of its purpose and meaning within a wider cultural context He interrogates the way we look and think about photographs and considers such issues as truth and recording objectivity and fine art identity and memory ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable The Photographer as Autobiographer Arnaud Schmitt,2022-09-10 This book explores hybrid memoirs combining text and images authored by photographers It contextualizes this sub category of life writing from a historical perspective within the overall context of life writing before taking a structural and cognitive approach to the text image relationship While autobiographers use photographs primarily for their illustrative or referential function photographers have a much more complex interaction with pictures in their autobiographical accounts This book explores how the visual aspect of a memoir may drastically alter the reader s response to the work but also how in other cases the visual parts seem disconnected from the text or underused Graphic Details Sarah Lightman,2016-04-22 The comics within capture in intimate often awkward but always relatable detail the tribulations and triumphs of life In particular the lives of 18 Jewish women artists who bare all in their work which appeared in the internationally acclaimed exhibition Graphic Details Confessional Comics by Jewish Women The comics are enhanced by original essays and interviews with the artists that provide further insight into the creation of autobiographical comics that resonate beyond self beyond gender and beyond ethnicity Research Methods and Methodologies in Education Robert Coe,Michael Waring,Larry V Hedges,James Arthur,2017-03-20 Best selling all encompassing textbook for research methods in education Women's Albums and Photography in Victorian England PatriziaDi Bello,2017-07-05 This beautifully illustrated study recaptures the rich history of women photographers and image collectors in nineteenth century England Situating the practice of collecting exchanging and displaying photographs and other images in the context of feminine sociability Patrizia Di Bello shows that albums express Victorian women s experience of modernity The albums of individual women and the broader feminine culture of collecting and displaying imagesare examined uncovering the cross references and fertilizations between women s albums and illustrated periodicals and demonstrating the way albums and photography itself were represented in women s magazines fashion plates and popular novels Bringing a sophisticated eye to overlooked images such as the family photograph Di Bello not only illustrates their significance as historical documents but elucidates the visual rhetorics at play In doing so she identifies the connections between Victorian album making and the work of modern day amateurs and artists who use digital techniques to compile and decorate albums with Victorian style borders and patterns At a time when photographic album making is being re vitalised by digital technologies this book rewrites the history of photographic albums placing the female collector at its centre and offering an alternative history of photography focused on its uses rather than on its aesthetic or artistic considerations It is remarkable in elegantly connecting the history of photography with the fields of material culture and women s studies      Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith,Julia Watson,2010 projects and an extensive bibliography Book Jacket      Feminism & Autobiography Tess Coslett,Celia Lury,Penny Summerfield,2002-01-04 Featuring essays by leading feminist scholars from a variety of disciplines this key text explores the latest developments in autobiographical studies The collection is structured around the inter linked concepts of genre inter subjectivity and memory Whilst exemplifying the very different levels of autobiographical activity going on in feminist studies the contributions chart a movement from autobiography as genre to autobiography as cultural practice and from the analysis of autobiographical texts to a preoccupation with autobiography as method      Counter Print Victoria Horne,2025-09-09 The history of contemporary art is also a history of its newsletters manifestos magazines pamphlets and journals Those periodical publications do not simply communicate or record ideas but have worked in exciting ways to shape art s practices histories and communities As a new generation of artists activists and scholars seek to uncover the histories of alternative publishing and artistic networks this book gathers original archival discoveries while offering methodologies for studying and thinking with those artefacts As the first essay collection to focus on the periodical art press and the ways we study it Counter Print offers readers an alternative route into the past fifty years of contemporary art one that is defiantly collaborative border crossing and disruptive      Challenging Macho Values Jonathan Salisbury,David Jackson,1996-01-24 Using a mix of the latest theory on boys men and masculinities and candid accounts of classroom based practice in an inner city school Challenging Macho Values examines the hidden problem of what is happening to our adolescent boys today why they are disruptive damaging to themselves and others and underachieving
