he thought about it that whoever was stupid or not fit for his office would not be able to see it Now he certainly believed that he had nothing to fear for himself but he wanted first to send somebody else in order to see how he stood with regard to his office Everybody in the whole town knew what a wonderful power the cloth had and they were all curious to see how bad or how stupid their neighbour was I will send my old and honoured minister to the weavers thought the Emperor He can judge best what the cloth is like for he has intellect and no one understands his office better than he Now the good old minister went into the hall where the two impostors sat working at the empty weaving looms Dear me thought the old minister opening his eyes wide I can see nothing But he did not say so Both the impostors begged him to be so kind as to step closer and asked him if it were not a beautiful texture and lovely colours They pointed to the empty loom and the poor old minister went forward rubbing his eyes but he could see nothing for there was nothing there Dear dear thought he can I be stupid I have never thought that and nobody must know it Can I be not fit for my office No I must certainly not say that I cannot see the cloth Have you nothing to say about it asked one of the men who was weaving

Science, Politics, and Friendship in the Works of Thomas Lovell Beddoes Ute Berns, 2012 This study reevaluates the work of the scientist and radical poet and dramatist and English exile in Germany Thomas Lovell Beddoes 1803 1849 While his writing has elicited high praise from poets ranging from Robert Browning through Ezra Pound to John Ashbery scholars have frequently neglected it on grounds of its purportedly morbid and opaque eccentricity Countering this scholarly perception this book deftly relocates Beddoes's poetry drama and prose at the centre of Anglo German debates on aesthetics and life science politics and theatre in an early nineteenth century European context Aided by his letters from Germany the book re creates the intercultural discursive universe in which Beddoes easily moves from Shakespeare's plays or the aesthetic experiments of Shelley and his circle to Goethe and to topics debated among Heinrich Heine and the Jungdeutschen from the most advanced contemporary scientific research to the post Napoleonic politics of the German radical students organisations and from Byron Baillie and London's illegitimate theatre to Schiller's and Tieck's highly charged reflections on male male friendship The study combines historicist strategies with theories of performance performativity and visibility as it focuses in particular on Beddoes's major and defining work Death's Jest Book first completed in 1829 and published posthumously after much revision in 1850 This study shows how Death's Jest Book as both drama and poetry devises complex perspectives on scientifically inspired notions of life and history how it forges a radical vision for post Napoleonic Europe and how it links this vision to a daring conception of desiring gendered selves The book pays close attention to the dialogue Beddoes's writing maintains with Early Modern literature and it highlights the proto modernist features that link his work to that of Bchner Grabbe and a European theatre avant garde This innovative study of Beddoes's work cutting across current investigations into politics gender and science in intercultural Romantic Studies should be of interest to scholars and students of British Romantic and Victorian studies as well as of German Vorm rz studies and to students and scholars of drama and theatre as well as Queer studies

N. Beebe, 1916 Jesus and Magic Richard A Horsley, 2015-04-30 It has become standard in modern interpretation to say that Jesus performed miracles and even mainline scholarly interpreters classify Jesus's healings and exorcisms as miracles Some highly regarded scholars have argued more provocatively that the healings and exorcisms were magic and that Jesus was a magician As Richard Horsley points out if we make a critical comparison between modern interpretation of Jesus's healing and exorcism on the one hand and the Gospel stories and other ancient texts on the other hand it becomes clear that the miracle and magic are modern concepts products of Enlightenment thinking Jesus and Magic asserts that Gospel stories do not have the concepts of miracle and magic What scholars constructed as magic turns out to have been ritual practices such as songs incantations medicines potions and appeals to higher powers for protection Horsley offers a critical reading of the healing and exorcism episodes in the Gospel stories This reading reveals a dynamic relationship between Jesus the healer the trust of those coming for healing and their support networks in local communities Horsley's reading of the Gospel stories gives little or no indication of divine intervention Rather the healing and exorcism stories portray healings and exorcisms Magic Boy Lance Cerff, 2023-11-10 Ben and Amy Starbright stay with their grandmother while their parents go on a study field trip The children find that Granny is not a typical granny when Granny's friend Cornelia Starkstare flies past their window on a broomstick Ben and Amy are in awe of Granny's magical abilities and are often surprised to encounter her many secrets and her intuition in various difficult situations She has many strange and surprising ways to sort out problems that Amy and Ben encounter The world is very different for these children immersed in a world of magic
