Bahr, 2009-03-16 Much academic writing on families reflects the ideal of non involvement and distanced subject matter Toward More Family Centered Family Sciences suggests that the family sciences in their effort to be scientific have perpetuated this distance between researcher and subject to the detriment of both The authors argue that family and kinship ties are transcendent ties boundary crossing in numerous ways They place an emphasis on family love in contrast and in addition to romantic love and criticize current approaches for neglecting the importance of transcendent concepts such as love commitment respect and sacrifice in the development and well being of family structures Drawing from insights both inside and outside of academia the authors seek to reincorporate transcendent concepts into the study of the family as a unit of society They argue for a more collaborative family centered family science and offer recommendations for how family researchers might work to change the scientific monologue about families to a systemic dialogue with families Love Inspired Historical August 2013 Bundle Lyn Cote, Regina Scott, Lacy Williams, Lily

The Strand Magazine ,1922 The Gift of Love Andrew Staron,2017-02-01 The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine's claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self-revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love
