Lesbian Family Relationships in American Society Maureen A. Asten, 1997-07-23 This book explores intimate relationships in lesbian families living in American society From an insider's point of view it examines how relationships within these families form and develop what special concerns and problems result what personal gains the family members derive from these types of families and how motherhood and parenthood evolve This work is a companion to Dr Asten's ethnographic video Intimate Relationships in Three Lesbian Families Living in American Society Most of the literature on lesbian families compares heterosexual families to lesbian families and uses the researcher's perspective as the core unit of analysis In contrast this work is an interrelated filmed written ethnography which is the result of participant observation and feminist participatory research It includes not only the researcher's data analysis but also the participants reaction to and interaction with the process Providing a unique understanding of the diversity of the American family this is an important contribution to the growing fields of lesbian feminist studies and visual anthropology as well as sociology and psychology For a copy of the video Intimate Relationships in Three Lesbian Families Living in American Society that accompanies this book contact Dr Maureen A Asten 1 Fifth Avenue Shrewsbury MA 01545 Telephone 508 799 9746

The Davidson Family of Rural Hill, North Carolina Jim Williams, Ann Williams, 2020-02-12 John Davidson came to the North Carolina back country circa 1751 as a young man with his sister and widowed mother Typical of Scots Irish settlers they arrived with little more than basic farming tools determined to make it on their own terms Davidson worked hard prospered married well and built a plantation on the Catawba River he called Rural Hill The Davidson's were loyal British citizens who paid their taxes and participated in colonial government When the Crown's overbearing authority interfered independence became paramount and Davidson and his neighbors became soldiers in the Revolutionary War After the war Davidson managed his plantation created shad fisheries helped develop the local iron industry with his sons in law and was an early planter of cotton His sons and grandsons along with their slave families continuously increased and improved the acreage and became early practitioners of scientific farming Drawing on public documents family papers and slave records this history describes how a fiercely independent family grew their lands and fortunes into a lasting legacy
