Robinson Jeffers William Everson,1968 John Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 was an American poet known for his work about the central California coast Most of Jeffers poetry was written in classic narrative and epic form but today he is also known for his short verse and considered an icon of the environmental movement In the 1920s and 1930s at the height of his popularity Jeffers was famous for being a tough outdoorsman living in relative solitude and writing of the difficulty and beauty of the wild He spent most of his life in Carmel California in a granite house that he had built himself called Tor House and Hawk Tower Tor is a Celtic term describing a large outcropping of rock Before Jeffers and Una purchased the land where Tor House would be built they rented a small cottage in Carmel and enjoyed many afternoon walks and picnics at the tors near the site that would become Tor House To build the first part of Tor House a small two story cottage Jeffers hired a local builder He worked with the builder and in this short informal apprenticeship he learned the art of stonemasonry He continued adding on to Tor House throughout his life writing in the mornings and working on the house in the afternoon Many of his poems reflect the influence of stone and building on his life He later built a large four story stone tower on the site called Hawk Tower based on similar structures he had seen while traveling through Ireland Construction on Tor House continued into the late 1950s and early 1960s and was completed by his eldest son The completed residence was used as a family home until his descendants decided to turn it over to the Tor House Foundation formed by Ansel Adams for historic preservation The romantic Gothic tower was named after a hawk that appeared while Jeffers was working on the structure and which disappeared the day it was completed The tower was a gift for his wife Una who had a fascination for Irish literature and stone towers Centennial Essays for Robinson Jeffers Robert Zaller,1991 This work is the first volume of critical essays devoted to the poetry of Robinson Jeffers Although Jeffers was likened to some of the greatest figures in the literary world his work was controversial His preoccupation with violence and sexuality was denounced by some his alleged blasphemy by others Condemned by moralists Marxists and Cold Warriors alike Jeffers fell into obscurity until his death in 1962 Included are nine original essays by leading Jeffers scholars The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman,2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan s home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage A

Towers of Myth and Stone Deborah Fleming, 2015-09-15 In this critical study of the influence of W B Yeats 1865 1939 on the poetry and drama of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Deborah Fleming examines similarities in imagery landscape belief in eternal recurrence use of myth distrust of rationalism and dedication to tradition Although Yeats's and Jeffers's styles differed widely Towers of Myth and Stone examines how the two men shared a vision of modernity rejected contemporary values in favor of traditions some of their own making and created poetry that sought to change those values Jeffers's well known opposition to modernist poetry forced him for decades to the margins of critical appraisal where he was seen as an eccentric without aesthetic content Yet both Yeats and Jeffers formulated social and poetic philosophies that continue to find relevance in critical and cultural theory Engaging Yeats's work enabled Jeffers to develop a related though distinct sense of what themes and subject matter were best suited for poetic endeavor His connection to Yeats helps to explain the nature of Jeffers's poetry even as it helps to clarify Yeats's influence on those who followed him Moreover Fleming argues Jeffers's interest in Yeats suggests that critics misunderstand Jeffers if they take his rejection of modernism as exemplified by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound as a rejection of contemporary poetry or the process by which modern poetry came into being Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War
