Rock Of Ages Memories Of The Past A Legacy For The Future:

Rock of Ages John D. Bauman, Richard Lewis, 2000-12-01 Remapping the Humanities Mary Garrett, Heidi Gottfried, Sandra F. VanBurkleo, 2008 An innovative collection demonstrating the rich potential for interdisciplinary learning found within the network of university based humanities centers Remapping the Humanities celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Wayne State University Humanities Center by bringing together essays that illustrate the richness of public conversations developed in interdisciplinary humanities centers The contributors to this collection represent more than a dozen disciplines including philosophy English political science history law comparative literature and Spanish and taken together their essays illustrate an ongoing remapping of the intellectual landscape as scholars from across university departments engage one another in unpredictable ways This volume is divided into four thematic sections Identity and Community Remembering and Forgetting Nationalism and Globalism and Toward Post Modernity Yet the essays deliberately represent a range of theoretical perspectives that interact synergistically such as feminism and postcolonial studies or literary criticism and art history They also tackle topics as varied as the formation of the modern family in France and the inculcation of civic virtue in American cities and they draw freely from different sources of evidence like newspaper accounts popular literature paintings and diaries Remapping the Humanities includes unique touches such as a portfolio of full color images and an audio CD of Celtic inspired jazz In addition a preface by Walter Edwards academic director of the Humanities Center at Wayne State University gives some background on this institution and the work being done there The importance of Remapping the Humanities ultimately lies in its refusal to say that learning has ended and the example it provides of the value of calculated ferment and intellectual instability Educators involved with or wanting to learn more about interdisciplinary research will appreciate this unique collection Legacy of Secrets Elizabeth Adler, 2009-12-16 She was the incomparable Lily Molyneux whose jet hair and sapphire eyes drove men to madness and revenge Rich reckless titles her secrets would scar generations to come They could never have enough money or power to capture her elusive heart three men who amassed fame and fortune in pursuit of the one woman they couldn't deny And a fourth who dies for her sins Elizabeth Adler's enthralling novel of passion privilege and retribution sweeps from the castles of nineteenth century Ireland to Boston bustling Back Bay from Beacon Hill's mansions to Wall Street's towering heights three generations haunted by buried passions that refuse to rest in peace The Ladies' Repository, 1852 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney

Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Romantic Futures Evy Varsamopoulou,2023-12-15

Romantic Futures is a collection which explores the significance of futurity in British Romanticism from a comparative perspective in three defining manifestations the future as conscious legacy by which is meant both influences or continuities and the anticipations of impact on the future the future as revealed by prophecy whether via religious figures or superstitions and a meditation on the temporality of the future or the future as a concept The book brings together a wide range of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives from utopian studies history religion and cultural theory to future studies neuroscience video games and art history Aiming to increase and diversify current critical engagement and highlight the contemporary relevance of the Romantics multivalent preoccupation with the future this collection renews the dialogue between Romanticism and our critical relation to its contemporaneity especially as it speaks to current understandings of the future in the sciences arts and humanities Classic Rock Radio Iko Forestborne, AI, 2025-03-31

Classic Rock Radio explores the enduring popularity of classic rock radio a format that has shaped musical nostalgia and continues to captivate listeners The book delves into the format s origins tracing its roots from the rise of FM radio and album oriented rock AOR to its establishment as a distinct entity in the 1980s Classic rock radio s success lies in its ability to create a curated sonic environment that evokes powerful memories and a sense of shared identity highlighting the active role of nostalgia in shaping cultural memory The book examines the programming strategies employed by classic rock stations from music selection to on air personalities analyzing how these elements cultivate listener loyalty It further investigates the format s adaptation to the digital age including the influence of streaming services and online communities Drawing from radio industry publications audience research and cultural studies Classic Rock Radio provides a comprehensive analysis of this cultural phenomenon demonstrating its lasting impact on music history and its unique way of connecting with audiences across generations Structured in three parts the book first introduces key concepts and the evolution of the format It then examines programming strategies and concludes with an investigation into the ongoing relevance of classic rock radio in the digital age This approach offers valuable insights into how media formats evolve adapt and maintain their resonance The Uplift of China Arthur H. Smith, 1907 The Routledge Handbook of Progressive Rock, Metal, and the Literary Imagination Chris Anderton, Lori Burns, 2025-02-26

This Handbook illustrates the many ways that progressive rock and metal music forge striking engagements with literary texts and themes The authors and their objects of analytic inquiry offer global and diverse perspectives on these genres and their literary connections from ancient times to the modern world from children's literature to epic poetry from mythology to science fiction and from esoteric fantasy to harsh political criticism The musical treatments of these literary materials span the continents from South and North America through Europe and Asia The collection presents critical perspectives on the enduring and complex relationships between words and music as these are expressed in progressive rock and metal The book is aimed primarily at an academic market valuable for second through final year students on undergraduate courses devoted to both popular music and to literary studies and to postgraduate programs and researchers in a range of fields including popular music studies musicology creative music performance and composition songwriting literary studies narrative studies folklore studies science fiction studies cultural studies liberal studies and sociology and for media and history courses that have an interest in the intersection of narratives music and society
